PREFACE

This is the twenty-first catalogue issued by the Fraternity since its founding one hundred and twenty-four years ago. It is published under the authority of the Executive Council and has been prepared under the direction of its catalogue committee.

Recent editions have incorporated a number of changes and improvements designed to increase their usefulness and interest. The current volume is most notably different from its predecessors in format and composition. The increased number of names in our roster has made it desirable to use the larger page size, which your committee felt resulted in a book of attractive proportions.

In this edition the chapter rolls appear in alphabetical order and include all brothers initiated through June of 1956 (approximately 26,300 names in all, of whom an estimated 10,300 are deceased). In addition to the chapter and class listings, there are included complete alphabetical and geographical cross-indexes.

We call attention to the necessity of depending on alumni throughout the country to furnish the information included herein, and we thank all those who helped in assembling such information and checking its accuracy. Through such help from alumni together with efficient assistance in the Fraternity office, the card files from which this catalogue was compiled were brought as nearly up to date as is possible with a constantly changing list of addresses. We ask the cooperation of all members of the Fraternity in maintaining this card file. Notices of deaths and changes of address or other corrections should be sent to The Alpha Delta Phi, 347 Madison Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

SPECIAL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Catalogue Committee wishes particularly to express its appreciation and thanks to the Fraternity's Administrative Assistant, Miss Mary R. Vilas, whose twenty-three years of devoted and capable service have played such a large part in the production of the last three editions of the Fraternity Catalogue, and whose wonderful help and experience have been largely responsible for the successful completion of this, the 1956 edition.

SAMUEL EELLS

1810–1842

MORE ABOUT THE FOUNDER

By Charles P. Eells

Hamilton 1874

As his nearest living kinsman I am asked to tell something new of Samuel Eells. We have a biography of him written by my Father, his brother, and many published sketches, from all of which we may fairly picture him to ourselves in his habit as he lived, but something still is left to tell of his antecedents and the surroundings by which the man we love was moulded.

His first American ancestor bearing the family name was John Eells, who migrated to Massachusetts Bay Colony from the West of England three hundred years ago in 1632, settled in Dorchester, Massachusetts, was a freeman of the Colony and a prosperous farmer, but when the Long Parliament met in England in 1640 John Eells, that stern old Puritan, sniffed the coming battle from afar, sold all he owned for whatever price it would bring, and sailed back to England to take up arms for his religion, carrying with him his son Samuel, then "a sucking child" a few weeks old. John never returned to America, but his son Samuel (from whom our Samuel was named) came back to his native Colony in 1661, and soon displayed marked ability and energy. He practiced "the notable profession of the law," and moreover was merchant, miller, selectman, Town Clerk, and often a Deputy in the General Court of Connecticut, as well as "a Major in the Regiment," fighting with distinction against the Indians in King Philip's War. From him our Samuel loved to trace his descent through an unbroken line of four clergymen from father to son, each a graduate of Harvard or Yale. Three ruled New England parishes piously and well, but the fourth, Samuel's father, glowed with missionary zeal, and followed the call of duty into the wilderness to Westmoreland in this County of Oneida, where he was pastor of the Congregational Church. There our Samuel was born on Saturday, May 18, 1810, the second son in a family of five sons and one daughter, another daughter having died in infancy. He was born into a harsh world which it is hard to imagine in these luxurious days, although it was here less than three generations ago. Central New York was then the frontier, and Samuel's home in Westmoreland knew only log-cabins, home-spun linsey-woolsey and tow-linen, flint and steel instead of matches, tallow-dips for lighting, rude make-shift-furniture, the plainest of food all home-grown, few books besides the Bible, Pilgrim's Progress and Foxe's Book of Martyrs, and those read only on Sunday which began at sunset on Saturday night, every member of the family, large or small, being constantly busied on week days in endless household labors; the Mohawk stage road to Albany the only link with the outside world; the preacher's stipend a mere pittance of money, eked out by cordwood and by such contributions of necessary food as the parishioners could spare from their own scanty store. In such surroundings Samuel spent his childhood, and although the family was united and loving, the unavoidable hardships undermined his health. There was nothing unusual in this. Infant mortality was high in those pioneering days of large families and few survivors; tuberculosis from which he suffered was especially rampant; and such conditions were general and inevitable. In spite of them Samuel passed a happy boyhood amid warm family affection, and was taught at home by his parents. Meantime his missionary father while faithfully performing the duties of his small parish was actively engaged in wider religious and educational work. He encouraged and promoted the evolution of Hamilton College from its original Indian school. When it was chartered by the State of New York he was one of the committee of three trustees who organized and opened the College and drew up its curriculum. Then as the frontier receded he pursued it by becoming the District Secretary of the Western Educational Society, whose duties required long and frequent horseback journeys everywhere through the forests and clearings of Western New York. During these absences Samuel's education continued under his mother's tuition, or perhaps under some village schoolmaster, for we are told that he "was confined strictly to study since he was four years of age." He was already leading his boyish companions by his force of character, his keen intelligence, his affectionate disposition, and by that richest and rarest of human gifts which we awkwardly term "personal magnetism."

In his fifteenth year Samuel's health broke down, and his wise father took him from his books and procured farm work for him for two seasons. In 1826 he attended the Clinton Academy where he displayed unsuspected talent in declamation and in literary composition. In the summer of the following year 1827 he entered the freshman class at Hamilton, but a recurrence of his malady forced him to leave College almost immediately, and he decided to try a sea-voyage to benefit his health. This did not mean for him a deck-chair on an ocean-liner as it might now-a-days, nor even a snug cabin in a packet vessel of the period, but a sailor's hammock swung in the forecastle of any craft which would hire him. He had no money; his father could spare him none, so he must work his passage. He made his way to New Haven with great effort in his weakened condition, most of the way on foot, and there he shipped on a coasting schooner to Chesapeake Bay, but he found the voyage too short for much improvement in his health. Looking for another ship which would take on such a sickly young landlubber he followed the coast north through New York and half the harbors of New England until in New Bedford he succeeded in getting a berth on a fishing smack for the Banks of Newfoundland by agreeing to pay the skipper half the fish he might catch. On his return he utilized the strength and skill gained in those former cruises by shipping again to the coast of Nova Scotia. At last in November 1828 he came home to Westmoreland, having supported himself entirely by his own exertions during his absence, and richer by a new wardrobe, regained strength for a time at least, and the discipline of his varied experiences as a man among men. Without delay he entered Hamilton again as a freshman, this time in the class of 1832, having lost a college year by his absence. He found the college at the lowest ebb in its history, torn by a bitter controversy between the President and most of the trustees, and by another even more bitter controversy between the student body and all the powers that were. The board of trustees had spent the permanent funds of the endowment in erecting college buildings which were still far from completion, so that hardly any money was left to pay instructors. The board had also interfered with management and discipline by the Faculty in a case of student wrong doing, which had enraged and alienated the undergraduates. In consequence, as we learn from President North's half-century letter, in Samuel's Sophomore year ten trustees had resigned, only two permanent officers of the college remained, namely President Davis and the professor of Chemistry and of the students only nine were left, all of them being members of the two lower classes. President North records the names of these "immortal nine" as he calls them, among them being Samuel Eells, and it is worthy of note that each of the nine in after life became distinguished in one way or another. The tide quickly turned, necessary funds were raised, the Faculty was reconstituted and although no students were graduated in the classes of 1829 and 1830 the ranks of the remaining classes were steadily recruited. Samuel's sea-faring life had been a useful preparation for his four years of driving under bare poles in this stormy college course. He naturally took the lead there as always. The radiant boy impressed his inspiring personality upon his fellows, and in his senior year he immortalized himself among the college men of America by evoking from that welter of conflict the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, instinct with his character and his ideals. I shall not dwell upon the founding of the Society, which is more or less familiar to us all. Misfortune still attended him at graduation, for although he was appointed valedictorian of his class there were no Commencement exercises in 1832, owing to a terrible epidemic of cholera which forbade all public gatherings. Samuel's father had removed to Ohio the year before, and Samuel set out to follow him thither upon his graduation, intending to join his elder brother in establishing an academy at Worthington in that State. He had long known that consumption held him in its grip, and before leaving Clinton he told a friend prophetically that he did not expect to live longer than ten years, and that he intended to crowd those years as full as possible. He had got as far as Buffalo on his journey and had boarded a boat there bound for Ohio when cholera attacked him, and before sailing far he was prostrated by the disease. The panic-stricken passengers all fled from him and insisted that he be put ashore at once. Of all on board only one young man ventured near enough to speak with him, and Samuel persuaded him to bring him some calomel, of which he took as much as he dared. At midnight they put him off at Dunkirk, leaving him to die in a shed on the wharf. No one came near him there, not even the village doctor, except two young men who peeped through the door, actuated apparently by morbid curiosity. Even in that extremity his magnetic appeal induced them to bring him hot water and the rest of his calomel. That done, they waited to see him die, but he rallied instead, and after a week of misery he staggered from his shed and resumed his solitary journey. Somehow, he reached his father's house at Worthington, where he soon decided that the proposed academy could not succeed, and the plan was abandoned.

Leaving his family there Samuel went on alone to Springfield, Ohio, without money, friends, influence, or health, intending to study law there and to support himself meanwhile by creating a school and teaching in it. His school began with only two scholars, but grew rapidly to as many as he could handle, while he read more law than candidates usually did, and in addition delivered courses of public lectures on such subjects as Astronomy and Geology. During these exhausting labors his disease made fearful progress. In one of his letters written at that time he says: "For the last six weeks I have been very low and failing rapidly," but adds: "Perhaps you wonder that I am not alarmed for myself in these circumstances. I answer, No! I am willing to suffer, to spend and be spent in this way, if such is the will of God." Undaunted, he was admitted to the Ohio Bar in February, 1835, and went forthwith to Cincinnati to undertake the practice of the law. Of his prospects he wrote in another letter: "I am entering on the duties of an arduous and crowded profession with no experience, dependent on it for my daily bread, with a host of competitors all interested in holding me under water, poor, friendless, a stranger in a strange place, doomed to hard work and little or no pay for a time at least. But I am a young man free as the wind, with a tolerable education, inured to hard study by long habit, and capable of bringing to the work not great talents but what will supply their place, namely great diligence, exclusive devotion to the duties I attempt, a prompt and unswerving self-sacrifice, and withal a free high spirit of unconquerable independence that bows to nothing but God!" There speaks a heroic soul! He does not even mention among his handicaps the disease which was crushing him.

For several months he found no clients, but when opportunities began to present themselves he made the most of every one to such effect that before the close of his first year at the Bar he was offered a junior partnership by Salmon P. Chase, then a lawyer in established practice in Cincinnati, afterward to become Chief Justice of the United States. Samuel gladly accepted this new association, which gave him at once abundant work and opportunity to display his legal attainments and his remarkable eloquence. He remained with Mr. Chase about two years, during which time his professional standing became so assured that notwithstanding his failing health he resigned his partnership and opened an office of his own at the end of 1837, less than three years after his admission to the Bar. His business speedily grew beyond his strength. Once more he was stricken down, this time never to recover. He took in a partner to maintain his office, and rode on horseback slowly and painfully to his father's house which was then at Amherst, in Ohio. There he passed the summer of 1838, gaining some relief, and in the autumn he returned to his office, hoping to continue his practice in some measure, but he found himself too weak, although he kept up an intermittent struggle for a few months longer. He spent the winter of 1840 in Cuba, and the following summer with his father. In September he once more tried desperately to resume his office work, but collapsed at once and then resigned himself to waiting for the inevitable end. His many friends did all in their power to lighten his sufferings of mind and body, and it was in the home of one of them, Mr. S. W. Pomeroy of Cincinnati that the close of his long martyrdom came peacefully on Sunday morning, March 13, 1842, before he had completed his thirty-second year.

His body was buried in the City Cemetery of Cincinnati, but was removed in 1859 to the family plot in Woodland Cemetery in Cleveland, and in recent years it has been entombed in a vault of the Alpha Delta Phi Chapter house on the Campus of Hamilton College, where his spirit has so long dwelt. There may it rest forever!

Throughout his lingering agony Samuel Eells was sustained and soothed by an unwavering Christian faith. He was at all times deeply and sincerely religious, but we must not think of him as sanctimonious or bigoted. There was nothing narrow-minded about him. He bequeathed to his brother James some of his books which have come down to me. Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy, the world of Fielding and Smollett, the poems of Milton, Gray, Coleridge, Shelley, Keats, Campbell, and half a dozen minor poets. Such a selection shows a broad and tolerant mind.

We have mentioned his ancestry as one of the determining factors in moulding his character, and it became so not merely passively by descent but actively by adoption and study. He gave much loving thought to it, and during that last sad summer of 1841 at his father's house in Amherst he wrote out his genealogy as fully as the sources in his reach would permit, closing that labor of love with an exhortation to kinsmen who would follow him. He left no descendants of his body but if he could have forseen this great family of his sons in the spirit he would surely have addressed these last words of his to them. No greeting from him could be more characteristic or appropriate, and I venture to read a portion of it to you now as his dying message to each one of us. "Perhaps in the lapse of generations, when I who am now making these reflections, this present Samuel Eells who now sits at his table and pens these lines, shall be but a handful of dust sleeping in an unknown grave,—then perhaps some noble and ingenuous youth just starting full of hope and vigor in the great race of life will peruse this record, and when he has finished will lay his hand thoughtfully on his brow and wonder what manner of man was this Samuel Eells who thus thought and wrote, who practiced law in Cincinnati and was graduated at Hamilton College,—just as I wonder who and what manner of man was that other Samuel Eells who practiced law in Milford, Connecticut, was 'a Major in the Regiment,' and died at Hingham in the Massachusetts Colony. If any such person shall ever in the time to come take this record in his hands to him I would introduce myself, and even across the gulf of time which divides us claim with him acquaintance and kindred. Step forward, young man! Let me look into thy face and take thy hand! Tarry with me a little, for I have somewhat to say unto thee. Life is before thee, an unexplored immeasurable sea, and thou art now just launching out upon the eventful voyage. This voyage thou canst never take but once. The shores which thou leavest now thou wilt never see again and if thou but shapest thy course aright, unspeakable is the prize that awaits thee at the distant port. Hast thou well-considered the peril of thy adventure? Hast thou carefully studied the great chart by which thou must keep thy reckoning? Hast thou observed those beacon lights where thy fellow mariners have been shipwrecked? And hast thou noted all the shoals and whirlpools, the narrow passages and sunken rocks that beset thy way? Art thou well provided for tempests, and is thy bark in all respects well trimmed and seaworthy? Hast thou taken on board that unerring Pilot who alone can conduct thee to the port? If thou hast such an outfit, launch away, and fear nothing. Spread all thy canvas to the breeze, and God speed thee on thy way! Life I say is before thee; what wilt thou do with it? To live merely is nothing. This prerogative thou hast in common with the brutes. But to live in good actions, to live as seeing Him who is invisible; to reform thy heart and benefit thy kind; to prepare thyself for immortality, this is thy supreme good, thy chief end, the proper study and true glory of thy being. Therefore let me counsel thee to be faithful to thyself. Inspect the motives of thy actions. Cherish every noble and virtuous sentiment, and scorn the very thought of a mean or dishonorable action. Speak what thou believest. Abhor all dissembling and always practice entire truthfulness. So shalt thou never fear the face of man, and shall evermore be at peace with thy conscience and thy God. In thy intercourse with the world let all thy actions be measured by the Golden Rule. Let thy voice ever be heard on the side of liberty and human rights, and hate every sort of oppression with all thy heart. Make no compromise with injustice, and defend the injured and oppressed even at the peril of thy life.

"And now, my beloved kinsman, farewell till thou reachest thy home on the other side of the gulf. I will be there on the shore to meet thee. Till then, God bless thee! and—Farewell."

Let us take this parting message from him to our hearts, and love the self-forgetting dying man who could so salute us, and whose own clear soul shines out in every line.

Throughout those last gloomy months of mental and physical torture, as his mind went sorrowing back, he must have been more than human if he did not silently grieve over his blighted aspirations, his promising career nipped in the bud, his hopes of useful service all blasted, his name and memory writ in water. How those haunting griefs would have banished if some kind power had granted him a vision of these coming days, to show his name honored and cherished by thousands of brothers in his dear Fraternity, his memory kept green after a hundred years, and more than all such selfish consolations his own inspiring ideals and purposes embodied forever in the genius of Alpha Delta Phi, conquering and to conquer. What nobler earthly immortality could he have dreamed than that!

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Alpha Delta Phi was founded at Hamilton College in 1832 by Samuel Eells, of the class of 1832. When he entered college in 1827 there were two literary societies at Hamilton, the Phoenix and the Philopeuthian between which a bitter and active rivalry existed. He joined the Philopeuthian to escape importunity and persecution, but the struggle for supremacy became so desperate and the means of persuasion so unscrupulous that he determined to form a new society. In a history of the foundation of the Fraternity, Mr. Eells writes:

"It was a contemplation of these and similar evils that first suggested to me the idea of establishing a society of a higher nature and more comprehensive and better principles; one that should combine all the advantages of a union for intellectual and literary purposes and at the same time maintain the integrity of youthful character and cultivate those finer feelings which the college society extinguished or enfeebled. The new association first must exclude that jealousy and angry competition and secondly must be built on a more comprehensive scale providing for every variety of taste and talent, and thirdly it must be national and universal in its adaptations so as not merely to cultivate a taste for literature or furnish the mind with knowledge; but with a true philosophical spirit looking to the entire man so as to develop his whole being—moral, social, and intellectual."

The attempt to establish a chapter of Kappa Alpha at Hamilton in 1830 and the establishment of a chapter of Sigma Phi there in 1831 probably suggested to Mr. Eells some of the details in the development of his plan.

The Fraternity was rapidly extended, the first chapters being established either by the founders of the parent chapter, or those closely associated with them. It was the pioneer fraternity in eleven colleges and the second or third in eight others. As it sought students of decided literary tastes, it soon acquired a distinctive literary character which in a great measure it has retained.

As the result of additions and withdrawals there are now twenty-eight active chapters and seven inactive, with a total membership of approximately 26,300 of whom 16,000 are living. Twenty-six chapters own their own houses. There are no alumni chapters. Graduate associations, however, have sprung up in many cities and have been of great value to the Fraternity. Each one functions independently. These organizations are strongly encouraged by the Fraternity.

The Fraternity is an undergraduate organization composed of the twenty-eight undergraduate chapters, all having the same ritual and ideas but each operating within itself as an individual unit. Annually each chapter sends delegates to an international convention which is the central governing body. Here problems of general policy are discussed and recommendations made which may be of benefit to the several chapters and the organization as a whole. The convention elects each year three officers of the Fraternity: a President, a Vice-President, and a Secretary. These officers hold office for one year or until their successors are elected.

As the Fraternity grew through the establishment of additional chapters in various parts of the country, it became necessary to establish a central alumni organization to coordinate the activities of the undergraduate units. In 1879 a corporation was formed under a special act of the New York State Legislature known as "The Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity." This Council is made up of the three officers of the Fraternity who are members ex officio, three members at large, one elected each year for a term of three years by the annual convention, and one representative elected every two years by each undergraduate chapter. An Executive Committee of seven members of the Executive Council functions on behalf of the Council between regular meetings which are held four times each year.

For the purpose of broadening the activities of the Executive Council and bringing about a closer contact with the undergraduate chapters, the office of Traveling Secretary was established in 1911. Since that time the incumbents of this office have dealt with matters relating to the welfare of the several chapters and of the Fraternity itself. Aside from chapter visitations with the attendant benefits of conferring with undergraduates on their local problems the Traveling Secretaries have been in contact with Resident Counselors and with college administrators and have brought about a closer relationship between the College or University, the local chapter and the Fraternity. At each regular meeting of the Executive Council the Traveling Secretary reports on his visitations since the previous meeting of that body.

The salary and expenses of the Traveling Secretary are provided through the income of the Traveling Secretary Fund, supplemented by annual contributions from the alumni organizations of the Fraternity. No charge is levied against the undergraduate chapters to support this activity.

From 1880 to 1885 the Executive Council published an annual magazine, the Star and Crescent. Currently each chapter issues printed "Chapter Letters," giving news of the Fraternity, the Chapter, and the Alumni. Song books were published at New Haven in 1855; at New York in 1859; Albany, N. Y., in 1864; Geneva, N. Y., in 1869; Amherst, Mass., in 1875; and New York, 1896, 1904, 1912, and 1925. The Executive Council issues an Executive Council News Letter in the Spring and in the Fall of each year.

In 1897, when he was President of the Fraternity, Clarence A. Seward, Hobart 1848, established the Seward Scholarship Fund. At present two scholarships are granted. One is always held by a member of the Hamilton Chapter and the other for four years by members of the other chapters in rotation.

In the Fall of 1931 an international literary competition among the undergraduates of the Fraternity was inaugurated.

Starting in the year 1837 catalogues have been issued from time to time giving information regarding the Fraternity as a whole as well as the chapters and individual members. This volume dated October 1, 1956, is the twenty-first so issued.

The original badge is an oblong slab with rounded corners, displaying on a shield of black enamel a white crescent bearing the letters "Α Δ Φ"; above the crescent is a green star with a gold center, and below is the date "1832" in gold.

On the back is engraved a monument with crossed sword and spear. This badge was partly superseded for some years by a jeweled crescent displaying the letters "Α Δ Φ" holding a star between its horns, which was at first used as a graduate symbol only. In 1912 the Fraternity adopted a standard slab badge and restricted the wearing of its insignia to the standard badge in the case of undergraduates and to a badge or pendant by graduates.

On October 5, 1920, the Executive Council commissioned Captain Robert Aitken, a well known sculptor, to produce a statue in bronze emblematic of the fraternal and united spirit of all the Chapters of our Fraternity and of our two countries, Canada and the United States. This statue represents an American and a Canadian soldier, both of the rank of Lieutenant in their appropriate uniforms, wounded and helping each other off the field of battle. Under foot is a German helmet signifying that the struggle was crowned with victory. The group symbolizes service, leadership, sacrifice, and fraternity and is intended for all time to keep before our growing membership the great ideals of Alpha Delta Phi. A replica was placed in every chapter house as a constant reminder of the union of our several chapters and of our two Countries.

The Fraternity colors are emerald green and white with gold and black as subsidiary. The flower is the lily-of-the-valley. The pledge button is a shield divided vertically, half green, half white.

CHARTER OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Laws of the State of New York, 1879

Chapter 245

An Act to incorporate The Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity, and to provide for the organization of subordinate chapters.

Passed May 5, 1879.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. John Jay, Theodore W. Dwight, Algernon S. Sullivan, Erasmus Darwin Hudson, Jr., Edward Morse Shepard, and Francis Lynde Stetson, all of the city of New York, and all persons who are now or may hereafter become associated with them or their successors, are hereby constituted and created a body politic and corporate by the name and title of "The Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable of suing and being sued in all courts of record and elsewhere, and of taking by gift, bequest, devise, or purchase, as well as of holding, granting, and conveying property, real, personal, or mixed, to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars,* to have and use a common seal and break and alter the same at pleasure; and also to provide for the organization of such chapters as it may see fit under such rules, by-laws, and regulations as the said The Executive Council may establish, and with such powers as it shall give, consistent with this act and not in conflict with the laws of this State.

§ 2. The objects of such corporation shall be to promote morality, learning, benevolence, and social culture among the members of said fraternity, and to take charge of its property and business interests.

§ 3. The said The Executive Council shall have power to make from time to time such by-laws, rules, and regulations as it may deem proper as to the members, names, and duties of its officers or trustees, and as to the time and manner of their election and their term of office; and also as to the mode of acquiring and of losing membership in the corporation hereby created; and also as to the mode of conducting the business and the affairs of the said corporation; and generally as to all matters within the objects hereinbefore stated, and not in conflict with the laws of this State.

§ 4. In case the said The Executive Council shall provide for the giving of a bond or obligation by any officer, member, or subordinate chapter thereof, the same may be made to the said "Executive Council of the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity."

§ 5. The principal office of the said The Executive Council shall be in the city of New York; and it shall be the duty of such council in the month of

ALABAMA CHAPTER

THE ALABAMA CHAPTER

1850–1859

The Alabama Chapter was established at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, in 1850, by members of the Senior class, and remained for eight years an active and flourishing Chapter of the Fraternity, doing its appointed work, although at a distance from the other chapters and removed from immediate and frequent contact with them. In 1858 the faculty of the University prohibited secret societies, and the Chapter suspended its active functions. The graduate members of the Chapter met immediately after this occurrence at Shelby Springs, Alabama, and organized a graduate association; but the war, in which so large a proportion of the members of the Chapter served under Confederate colors, early brought the annual reunions to a close. As the buildings, records and library of the University were burned during the war, sources of information as to college honors won by the Chapter are cut off.

THE AMHERST CHAPTER

Alpha Delta Phi was the first national Greek-letter fraternity to establish a chapter at Amherst. It developed from an original nucleus of eleven members of the class of 1837, who organized in September, 1835, under the name of Iota Pi Kappa (significance unknown) to promote the study of history. Iota Pi Kappa was not destined to long life, for—as an account inscribed in Latin on the initial pages of the original minute book of the Amherst Chapter informs us—in September, 1836, after it had for a year "flourished and grown stronger," there arrived in Amherst two delegates from the Yale Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, who, having gained the good graces of the members of Iota Pi Kappa, disclosed to them the purpose of their coming, namely, to establish a chapter of Alpha Delta Phi at Amherst. Doubt was expressed that the "Facultas reverendissima" would approve of such a project while Iota Pi Kappa remained in existence; whereupon it was proposed that Iota Pi Kappa change its name and constitution to that of Alpha Delta Phi. Iota Pi Kappa immediately convened, and voted to send three delegates to be admitted into the fellowship and privileges and to look into the question. These accordingly did so, and reported back favorably; their report was then laid on the table. Finally, after two or three months of debate, during which time nearly all the members of Iota Pi Kappa were one by one initiated into Alpha Delta Phi, an agreement was reached ("duobus exceptis") to discard the constitution of Iota Pi Kappa and to adopt that of Alpha Delta Phi. The first meeting of the new Chapter was held on Monday, January 9, 1837, in the room of one of its members. The charter members of the Amherst Chapter numbered seventeen members of the classes of 1837 and 1838.

The history of the Chapter has been on the whole one of well-ordered growth and development. During the first five years of the Chapter's history its membership was confined to the Senior and Junior classes. But the advent of another fraternity, in 1841, and the rivalry which sprang up between the two societies compelled the admission of Sophomores and Freshmen. From then until 1946 the Chapter consisted of members of all four classes, chosen, for the most part, at the beginning of Freshmen year. Until 1879, however, the two lower delegations did not wear the badge of the Fraternity.

In 1873, they entered into negotiations to secure a house and grounds. These efforts resulted in the purchase of a chapter house, in 1874, and the society took possession of its new property in August, 1875. This chapter house was the first in Amherst.

The great fire on the morning of July 4, 1879, which swept away the business part of Amherst, did not spare Alpha Delta Phi; but the Chapter had the good fortune to save all its records. A new chapter house was built (1889–1890), occupying a commanding situation near the old house. In 1929 on this same piece of property another and larger home was constructed.

As in many colleges most fraternity activities were discontinued at Amherst during World War II. The last pre-war initiation took place in the fall of 1942 when the 1946 delegation was initiated. Soon after the house was leased to the college for occupation by military training units, and the formal life of the chapter suspended.

With the fraternities dormant, the Alumni Council, Faculty and Trustees made a thorough study of conditions of former operation, with the co-operation of representatives of all the fraternities. As a result, after the war the fraternities were allowed by the Trustees to reöpen in the fall of 1945 under the supervision of a House Management Committee consisting of an alumnus and undergraduate representatives of each fraternity and the non-fraternity group. The result appears to be a system of workable sub-committees for rushing, conduct in houses, national expenses and faculty advisors.

The eleven year old Fraternity Business Management was organized by the fraternities themselves to assist in the business side of operation. The House Management Committee was set up at the request of the Trustees of the College to supervise the social aspects of the fraternities. The operation of these two committees has been a revelation in fraternity co-operation and understanding.

Following a concerted effort by the alumni brothers to renovate the physical conditions of the chapter house and to reëstablish successful rushing, initiations were renewed in the fall of 1946 and the chapter welcomed the new brothers along with a gratifying number of returning veterans, from classes which had previously been graduated, to complete their courses. Under the new system men are pledged in the spring of their freshman year, but not initiated until the following fall. Even with only three delegations the size of the chapter has been maintained due to the present plan conceived by the Amherst undergraduates, of giving each student the opportunity of joining a fraternity if he so desires. The plan has proved highly satisfactory and is being emulated by other colleges of a similar nature.

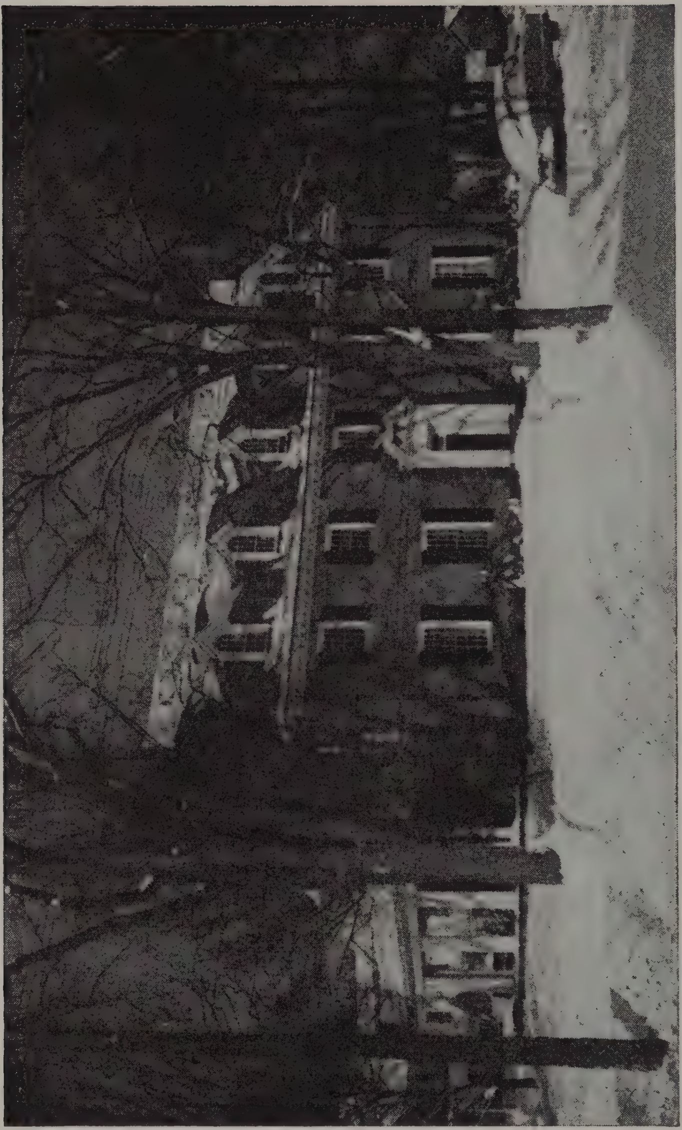
BOWDOIN COLLEGE

BOWDOIN CHAPTER



BOWDOIN

THE BOWDOIN CHAPTER

1841–

The Bowdoin Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was established on October 16, 1841. The charter members were all of the Class of 1842. For the first few years the meetings of the Chapter were held in a small building on the west side of the road running in front of the College, the structure having been built for an academy and being known as the Chateau or Gothic Hall. It had been thought that the Bowdoin Faculty was opposed to the establishment of secret societies, but they were consulted and offered no objection. The Chapter was fortunate in the selection of suitable members from the very first, and at once established an enviable reputation for scholarship and general leadership. It was the first fraternity on the Bowdoin campus.

The Alpha Delta Phi Chapter House Association was formed in July, 1898, "to acquire and maintain a chapter house in Brunswick for the use of the members of the Bowdoin Chapter." In that same year property situated on the corner of Maine and Potter Streets was purchased and remodeled into the first fraternity house at Bowdoin. This chapter house served as the home of the Alpha Delta Phi until 1924.

At the Annual Meeting held on June 18, 1924, a Building Committee was appointed with power to proceed with the erection of a modern chapter house. The next annual meeting, in June, 1925, was held in the new chapter house which had been erected on the site of the former one. This house, the present home of the Bowdoin Chapter, was made possible by substantial and generous contributions from nearly all of the alumni. In addition to these contributions the Association has received several generous bequests, notable among which was a bequest of $20,000, under the will of Marshall P. Cram, A.B., Ph.D., Bowdoin, 1904, Professor of Chemistry at Bowdoin for many years, who died in 1933.

During the years 1861 to 1865, the Chapter furnished many members to the Armed Services, including Major General Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain, a distinguished and notable war hero, later Governor of Maine and President of Bowdoin. In World War I, 116 Bowdoin Alpha Delts served and 6 lost their lives. The Chapter kept its flag flying throughout World War II, although reduced in numbers at one point, to six active members. About 200 from the Chapter served in the Armed Services, from private to major general, and seven gave their lives.

"They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them."

Since the war years, fraternities have increased in size at Bowdoin and the Chapter currently has an active membership of approximately seventy brothers.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA CHAPTER

1926–

In 1922 the delegates to the ninetieth convention of Alpha Delta Phi considered further expansion in Canada. Accordingly, the McGill and Toronto Chapters were instructed to survey the situation and to keep the other Chapters informed as to the latest developments among Canadian colleges and universities. At the Fraternity convention in 1924, members of the Executive Council became interested in the University of British Columbia as a possible field for the Fraternity. They realized the advantage of its proximity to the Washington Chapter as well as the promising growth of the University. Accordingly, two alumni of the Toronto Chapter, resident in Vancouver and formerly active in the negotiations pertaining to the installation of the Washington Chapter, were asked to investigate the possibility of establishing a chapter at the University of British Columbia. In the course of their inquiries they came in contact with alumni of a prominent local fraternity on the campus known as Phi Epsilon.

This local group had a short but interesting career. Formed in 1912, it flourished until the outbreak of war in 1914, when the entire body left on active service. In 1916, certain members, who had returned to Vancouver, organized a chapter of their fraternity in the new University of British Columbia which had taken over McGill University College. From that time, the University Chapter of Phi Epsilon was continuously in existence quite independently of the two groups.

Early in 1925, the University Chapter asked to be allowed to petition Alpha Delta Phi and those of their alumni who had not attended the University of British Columbia, although realizing that they could not be signatories to the petition, gave enthusiastic support to the others in their request. Having secured the endorsement of the Vancouver Alumni Association of Alpha Delta Phi and the formal support of several chapters, including those in Canada and on the Pacific Coast, a petition was presented to the several chapters in December, 1925.

On February 17, 1926, word was received that the Fraternity had granted a charter for a chapter in the University of British Columbia to be known as the British Columbia Chapter, and the formal installation took place on September 25 of the same year.

In 1935, the British Columbia Chapter were hosts with the Washington Chapter to the 103rd Convention of Alpha Delta Phi.

The Chapter had a fine war record. At one time during the Second World War the Chapter was left with only three brothers to carry on the work of the Fraternity on the campus. Since that time, the Chapter has been continually growing and in 1956 is in a stronger position than ever before.

On December 23, 1948, the Chapter purchased a new house located at 3890 Cartier St., Vancouver, B. C., Canada. Plans are being laid now to build a new Alpha Delta Phi chapter house on the campus in the new development of "Fraternity Row."

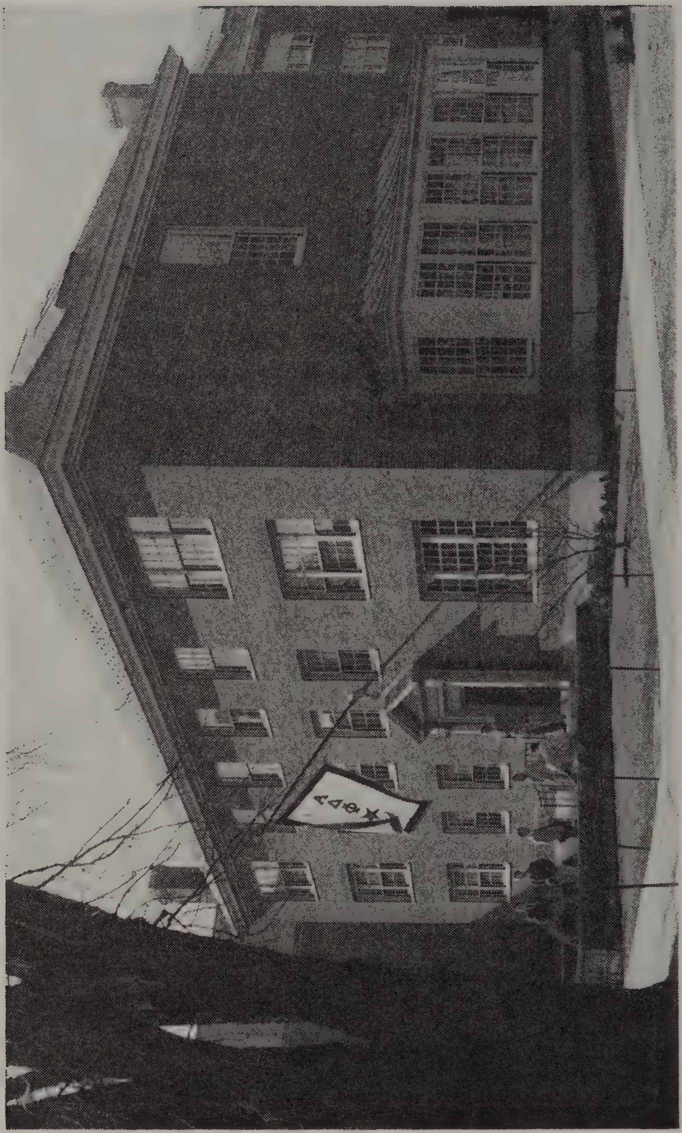
BROWN UNIVERSITY

BRUNONIAN CHAPTER



BROWN

THE BRUNONIAN CHAPTER

1836–1841, 1851–

The Brunonian Chapter was formally instituted in 1836 when certain students of Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island, petitioned for a charter from the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity. A delegation consisting of three men from the Hamilton, Columbia, and Yale Chapters came to Providence in the autumn of 1836 and inducted a group of undergraduates into the Fraternity. Meetings were held weekly on Saturday mornings and members were chosen only from the three upper classes in the University. It was adherence to the principle of selecting only outstanding upper-classmen which interrupted the continuity of the Chapter in 1838 when other fraternities had established themselves at Brown and proceeded to initiate members of the freshman class. The Alpha Delta Phi Chapter refused to accept freshmen for membership and was unwilling to choose men from classes already canvassed by rivals, and therefore during the period from 1838 to 1850 no initiations occurred.

The Chapter was reorganized in 1850 when a small fraternity at Brown, of which there was one other chapter in New England, namely at Williams, sought to become affiliated with the Alpha Delta Phi. This petition was granted due chiefly to the former reputation of the Brunonian Chapter and the hearty cooperation of its graduates. On the evening of April 15, 1851, William Wallace Crapo, Yale '52, by authority of the Fraternity met in Providence and initiated as members of Alpha Delta Phi seventeen students in Brown University of the Classes of 1851, 1852, 1853, and 1854. The revived Chapter proceeded very much as though there had been no break in the line of succession.

For many years prior to 1904 chapter meetings were held Friday nights in a building at the foot of Waterman Street in Providence called the "Arnold Block." In 1904 the property located at 54 College Street was purchased. The Chapter flourished in this house, with its handsome "Lodge," from 1904 until 1952 at which time all of the fraternities at Brown abandoned their off-campus houses and moved into quarters provided for them in the extensive new Wriston Quadrangle. Although all accommodations for fraternities at Brown are now similar in structure, the Brunonian Chapter house is unique and attractive, having been given by alumni and others a distinctive Chapter Room, a library, a recreation room and completely modern furniture and furnishings.

The Brunonian Chapter continues to prosper and has the reputation in Providence and among the faculty of being an outstanding fraternity in the university community.

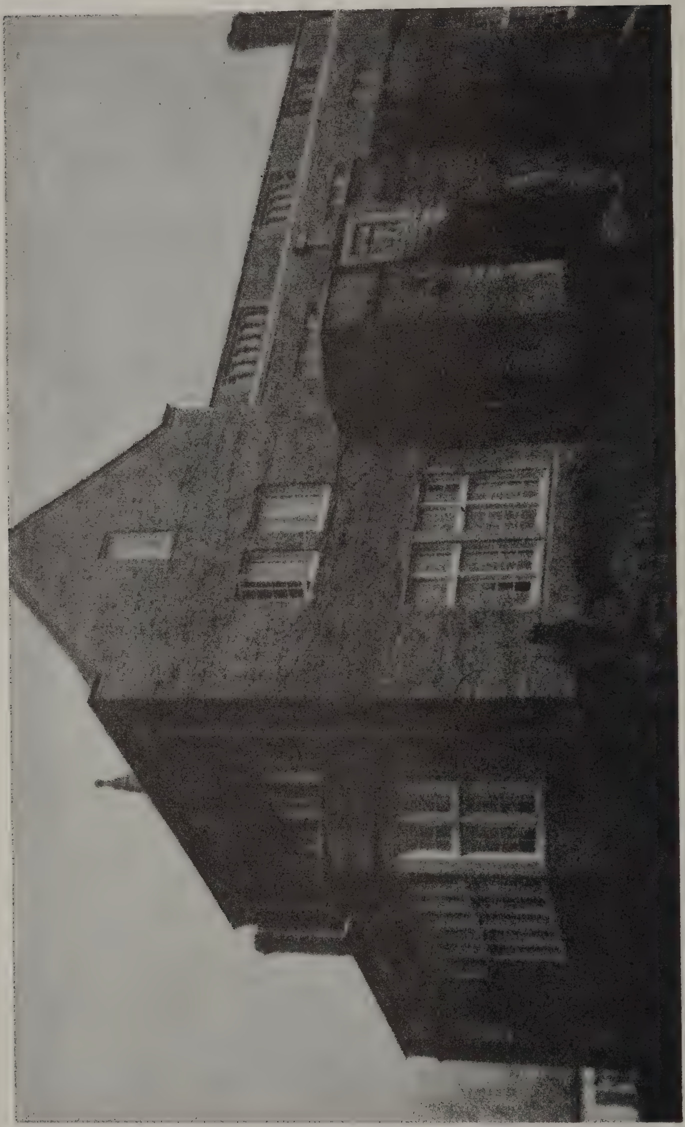
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

CALIFORNIA CHAPTER



CALIFORNIA

THE CALIFORNIA CHAPTER

1908–

In 1900, a local fraternity, Phi Sigma Delta, was organized at the University of California with the intent of securing a charter from Alpha Delta Phi. For eight years, in spite of annual disappointment, the members of Phi Sigma Delta persevered in their efforts and, in September, 1908, success was finally achieved with the installation of the California Chapter. This installation advanced Alpha Delta Phi 2,000 miles westward and served to open the way for the establishment of other chapters on the Pacific Coast.

During the petitioning period and the years immediately following the establishment of the California Chapter, the influence of Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Brunonian, 1875, then and for twenty years President of the University of California, was pre-eminent. Today, thirty years after his death, the spirit of Benjamin Ide Wheeler still has a strong influence on the California Chapter and is kept alive by the leading alumni who knew him in the Chapter's early days.

Soon after securing its position at California, the Chapter turned to the problem of obtaining adequate housing. Financial assistance from the alumni of the California and other chapters was forthcoming. The chapter house, formally opened and dedicated in September, 1924, provided the California Chapter with one of the most attractive fraternity houses in Berkeley. Built on the brow of a hill, it commands a sweeping view of San Francisco Bay, the Golden Gate and the surrounding mountains.

National Conventions of the Fraternity were held under the auspices of the California Chapter in 1915 and the joint auspices of the California and Stanford Chapters in 1938.

During the second World War the California Chapter was the only fraternity at the University which maintained normal operations. The efforts which were necessary to accomplish this result have done much to assure the Chapter's strong influence and high standing at the University since the War.

In 1946 the alumni of the California Chapter established the California Alpha Delta Phi Memorial Foundation as a war memorial. The purpose of this foundation is to grant financial aid to worthy students at the University and awards have been made annually since its inception.

In 1948 the alumni organization of the Chapter was revitalized by the establishment of the Alumni Council composed of one alumnus from each college class. The Council meets twice a year and, with the help of the Resident Counselor, serves to maintain a strong tie between the active chapter and the alumni.

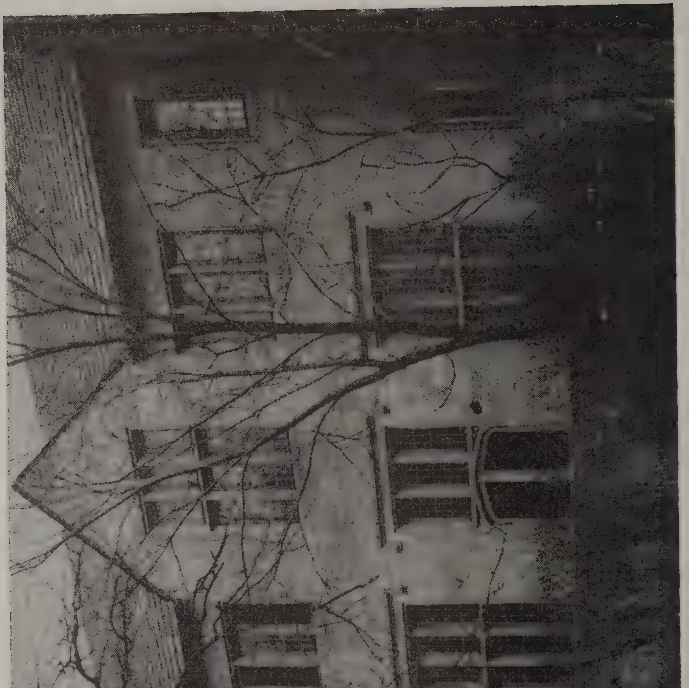
UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

CHICAGO CHAPTER



CHICAGO

THE CHICAGO CHAPTER

1896–

The Lion's Head Club was organized in Room 21 of Snell Hall, on the University of Chicago campus, December 17, 1894. The group had two objects, the first of which was to bring together a congenial group of men who had become known as anti-fraternity men because each had refused one or more bids from established fraternities. The second and most important purpose was to work for a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi.

Early in 1895 a petition was prepared setting forth the advantages of the University of Chicago as a place for a new chapter and when the convention met, the petition was approved. It was then referred to the individual chapters for ratification, the last necessary vote being received late in December, 1895.

With the granting of the charter, the main purpose for which the club had been founded was realized, and the question at once arose as to the fate of the old organization. It was finally decided to disband and use the Lion's Head Club as the nucleus of a senior honor society. In the end neither of these things was done and the organization passed out of existence with the initiation of its members into Alpha Delta Phi.

On the night of March 20, 1896, at the Auditorium Hotel, ten men were initiated and became charter members of the Chicago Chapter. Despite the fact that these men had been members of the University for several years before the granting of a Charter, with the exception of two, they entered graduate work and thus some of the usual tribulations of a new chapter in its earliest days were avoided.

The first chapter house occupied was very small and did not afford ample space for a dining room. However, a certain amount of prandial spirit was secured by acquiring a room at a boarding house. Here the Chapter remained for two years, but with growing numbers was compelled to move to a larger house. With continuous expansion, the Chapter lived in three or four other houses before acquiring a house on the present site. In 1928 this house was torn down to be replaced by the present chapter house, a beautiful structure of grey Indiana limestone in perfect harmony with the Gothic buildings of the University of Chicago.

For almost a decade after World War II, when the University prohibited the existence of fraternities at the undergraduate level, the Chapter operated successfully as the only graduate unit in the Fraternity. This transition, with its attendant difficulties, required insight and devotion to the University and to the Fraternity; the chapter and the alumni demonstrated both.

With the return of fraternities, in 1954, to undergraduate life at Chicago, and the curriculum changes which have brought about a return of the four-year bachelor's degree, the Chapter is no longer exclusively a graduate chapter.

One aspect most satisfactory to this chapter is the strong Chicago Society which is an active organization of six hundred alumni and which regularly schedules functions in connection with the active chapter. One of these functions is the annual banquet.

The Chicago Chapter has always ranked high·on the campus in scholarship, in athletics and in fellowship, and has dedicated itself to the development of its members in these respects as the essence of a well-rounded education.

COLLEGE OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

MANHATTAN CHAPTER

THE MANHATTAN CHAPTER

1855–1913

On the evening of March 9, 1855, eleven members of the New York Free Academy assembled at the Collamore House, Broadway, and there met two graduates of the Amherst Chapter, who avowed themselves so much pleased with the spirit manifested by the men there assembled, that they pledged themselves to use their whole influence with their own and other Chapters to obtain a charter for the petitioners.

As a consequence of this meeting an application for the membership in the Fraternity was drawn up and a committee appointed for that purpose, and presented to the Amherst Chapter. The affirmative answer of that Chapter was received on April 6, 1855, and the other Chapters having signified their approbation, a charter was issued, dated July 9, 1855, and the evening of Monday, July 9, 1855, was chosen for the initiation of the new Chapter, at which time the ceremony was performed; and Manhattan Chapter held its first regular meeting on Thursday, July 12, 1855, at the residence of one of the brothers.

From this time onward the Chapter prospered, and on February 19, 1856, held its first meeting in its new rooms, No. 809 Broadway, as yet not entirely furnished. After the completion of the hall a special dedicatory meeting was held May 29, 1856, at which brothers from the Hamilton, Urban, Columbia, Yale, Amherst, Harvard, Geneva, Dartmouth, and Williams Chapters were present.

On June 24 and 25, 1857, the Twenty-fifth Annual Convention was held in New York City. The occasion was a great one in the Fraternity, and Manhattan Chapter received great benefit thereby.

For a long time the Chapter held the even tenor of its way, nothing especially worthy of note occurring until in May, 1859, it received notice that the initiation of the Union Chapter was to be entrusted to Manhattan. Three brothers served as the committee for the Chapter, and on July 8 seventeen men of that College were duly initiated. In the latter part of this year the Graduate Chapter in New York, so long a noted, useful and helpful body of brothers, first met as an organized body.

In the spring of 1891 the Chapter moved to its separate quarters at 13 East 42nd Street. These rooms were well adapted to the giving of private theatricals, which formed a pleasant feature of the Chapter gatherings.

In the winter of 1896 the Chapter moved into a commodious brownstone house at 130 East 57th Street.

In 1913, the Chapter became inactive and conditions on the campus have not been considered propitious for its revival. The Fraternity as a whole owes a debt of gratitude to the many distinguished alumni of the Manhattan Chapter for their generous interest in the Fraternity, which has continued up until the present day.

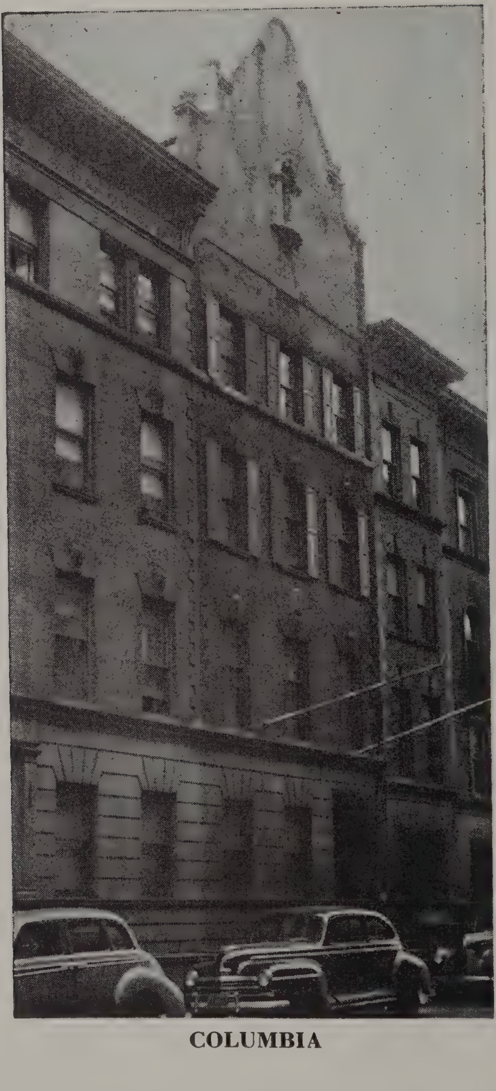
COLUMBIA CHAPTER



COLUMBIA

THE COLUMBIA CHAPTER

1836–1840, 1881–

The first Greek-letter fraternity to be established at Columbia was the Columbia Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, which was founded in 1836 by John Jay and John Henry Hobart. At that time the Fraternity was four years old, and Columbia was the fourth college at which a chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was chartered.

The first meeting was held on June 16, 1836, presided over by Arthur Cleveland Coxe, an active member of the Urban Chapter. At this meeting four men were initiated.

The rapid growth and increasing influence of this secret brotherhood served only to deepen the jealousy of the uninitiated. Eventually the Chapter numbered thirty-three, and their progress excited such unpleasant feelings between classmates that the Chapter returned its charter to the archives of the Fraternity, having reached the fourth year of its existence.

An interval of forty years now succeeded. From time to time applications for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi were received from students of Columbia College; but none met the entire approval of the Fraternity until the reception of the petition of the reorganizers of the Chapter.

With the surviving brothers and the Fraternity at large to encourage them, eight undergraduates assumed the task of reëstablishing Alpha Delta Phi in Columbia. The initiation ceremony took place Wednesday evening, May 18, 1881. It was conducted by representatives from the following Chapters: Hamilton, Yale, Amherst, Harvard, Geneva, Peninsular, Dartmouth, Williams, Manhattan, Middletown, Kenyon, Union, Cornell, and Phi Kappa.

Ever since the Chapter has prospered and grown in importance and influence. After Columbia became a University and moved to Morningside Heights, a chapter house was purchased and was occupied until 1926. It had been evident for several years that this house was inadequate and too far removed from the campus, and in 1926 the Association of the Graduates of the Columbia Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi bought a larger house fronting upon the campus. It was dedicated on March 4, 1927, and has since been the home of the Columbia Chapter. The membership varies from thirty to forty.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY

CORNELL CHAPTER

CORNELL

THE CORNELL CHAPTER

1869–

The Cornell Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was founded in 1869 when seven alumni of other chapters, foreseeing the development of the University, decided that it would be a great opportunity for a successful chapter of the Fraternity. Arrangements were made for the Chapter, the charter members were chosen, and the first initiation took place in March, 1869, at the Rochester Chapter.

At this time rooms were secured on Tioga Street, Ithaca, N. Y., where meetings were held until the following year when new rooms were taken on the Wilgus block. At midnight, May 4, 1878, sufficient funds having been subscribed by interested alumni, ground was broken on Buffalo Street for the construction of the new house. It is believed that this house was the first house to be built in America for fraternity use only.

During these years the Chapter grew rapidly and became one of the leading organizations "on the hill." The house on Buffalo Street was occupied until 1903 when a new house was built on Stewart Avenue on a beautiful site overlooking Cayuga Lake. This house was, until its destruction by fire on February 11, 1929, one of the finest on the campus. Immediately following the fire, the friendly offer of the Chi Phi House was accepted by the Chapter which took temporary quarters in the Chi Phi house. The remainder of the term was spent there and the next two years on Summit Avenue.

In the Spring of 1931, through great interest of alumni, the construction of a new and slightly larger house was begun on the old Stewart Avenue foundations. The present house was completed in the Fall of that year and has been called one of the most distinguished fraternity houses in the country.

Shortly after the outbreak of World War II, almost the entire Chapter went into service and the House was officially closed. It was taken over by the Navy for the men in training at Cornell and housed about ninety-four men, almost three times its normal capacity. The House was returned on November 30, 1945 in excellent condition. A few Chapter members returned in the Spring of 1946. The House officially reopened with a full complement of members at the beginning of the 1946 Fall Term. The years following have been notably successful in all respects.

In 1955–56, second term rushing was instituted at Cornell, replacing the long-standing, initial rushing system. This change had been foreseen and the Chapter was at a high point numerically before the deferred rushing went into effect. It is hoped no long range dislocations will result from this change. Thus far, after one year, the spirit, morale and chapter strength continues as high as ever.

The Chapter house and property are owned and supervised by "Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity at Cornell University," a membership corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York. The Chapter has always had a large body of active, interested alumni to oversee and help guide its affairs and the tradition of excellent active-alumni relations and cooperation is one of the great strengths of the Chapter.

Throughout its history at Cornell, Alpha Delta Phi has been outstanding in college activities and organizations and has turned out many prominent leaders in the affairs of the nation.

CUMBERLAND UNIVERSITY

CUMBERLAND CHAPTER

THE CUMBERLAND CHAPTER

1857–1861

The Cumberland Chapter was organized in the year 1857. During that year the Trustees of the Alabama University, at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, abolished all the Greek-letter fraternities existing at that institution, thereby compelling the Alabama Chapter to suspend its functions. Thereupon two members of the latter Chapter, who were at the time members of the Law School of the Cumberland University, at Lebanon, Tennessee, by authority of the Chapter and upon the advice of the graduate association, organized the Cumberland Chapter, and transferred to it the charter and records of their own Chapter. The legal status of the newly organized Chapter was not, however, fully settled until the next convention, and its list of membership first appeared in the catalogue of 1860.

At the breaking out of the great war between the States in 1861, the University, then one of the oldest, most celebrated and flourishing institutions in the South, was deserted by its students, nearly all of whom enlisted in the Confederate service; and its portals were closed. The college buildings subserved only the purpose of barracks for soldiers of both contending armies, and the University did not re-open until after the war.

The Cumberland Chapter suspended its active functions in 1861, and this fact was recognized by the convention of 1863.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE

DARTMOUTH CHAPTER

DARTMOUTH

THE DARTMOUTH CHAPTER

1846–

During the college year 1842–43 the Tau Delta Theta Society was organized at Dartmouth College with fourteen members, all from the Sophomore Class. It was small in numbers but well selected and managed. It moved on quietly, minded its own business, and did much good work. The next few years, however, found potent aspirations awakening within the bosom of the young society. In the autumn of 1844 it entered into correspondence with the Amherst Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, with a view of converting the Tau Delta Theta into a chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi. The Amherst Chapter seemed to favor such a change; but no definite results were reached. At the same time strenuous efforts were made to keep other Dartmouth societies uninformed as to the initiation and progress of the ambitious plan. For such was the state of inter-fraternity jealousy that every possible hostile influence was brought to bear on the group; several times the negotiators resorted to long and tedious stage-coach trips to avoid the possibility of the mails being intercepted by rivals. Continued delay on the part of the Amherst Chapter only brought forth renewed effort from Hanover. Finally the petition was granted, and, conveyed by a delegation composed of brothers from Amherst and Yale, a charter arrived sanctioning the new chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi.

The presence of the delegates in Hanover put an end to all doubts in the minds of both Tau Delta and their rivals. On a windy March evening in 1846 the installation took place in Professor Sanborn's study (a room reproduced and preserved as a museum in Sanborn House), the charter was produced and signed, and Tau Delta Theta was formally evolved into the Dartmouth Chapter of the Alpha Delta Phi. With the same zeal that characterized its struggle for establishment, the new fraternity, quartered in its first club-rooms in old Dartmouth Hall, began its long career at Dartmouth.

After being inactive and with its house closed during World War II, the Chapter reopened in March, 1946 with some 15 brothers returning (from the delegations of 1940 to 1947). It soon regained its pre-war strength in both size and quality, and has since continued in its position of leadership on the Dartmouth campus.

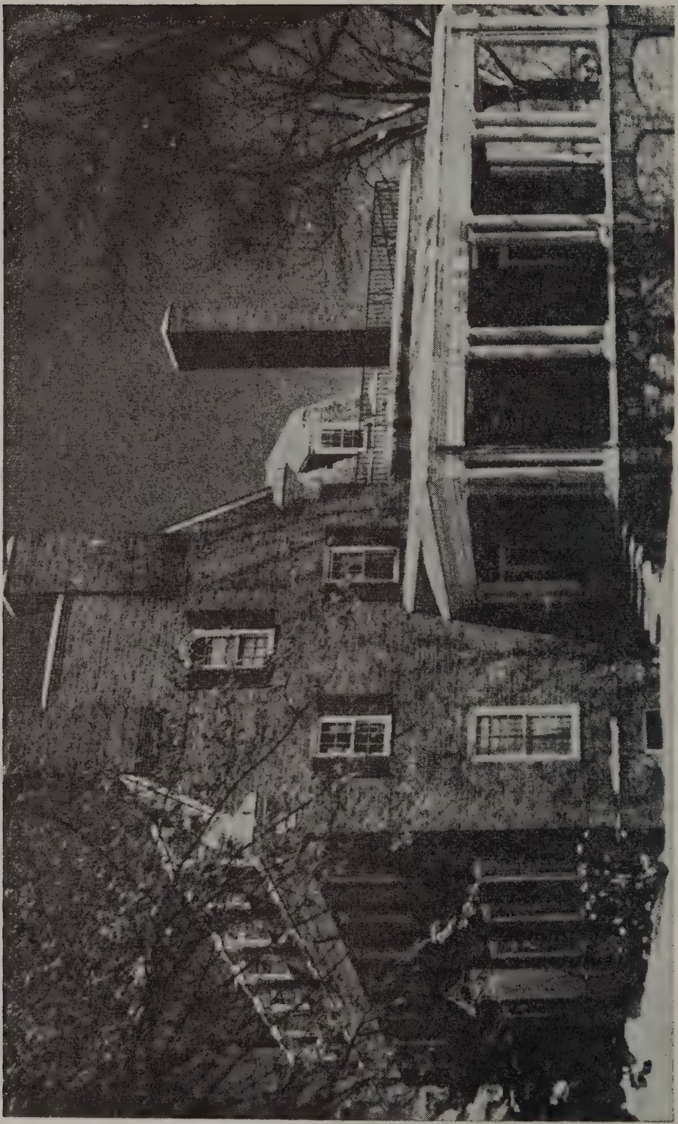
HAMILTON COLLEGE

HAMILTON CHAPTER



HAMILTON

THE HAMILTON CHAPTER

1832–

The early history of the Hamilton Chapter is the early history of the Fraternity. In the winter of 1831–1832 five students of Hamilton College came together in an upper chamber after the evening lamps were lighted, to devise a method of helping each other forward in their study and culture and preparation for the future. The names of the five students were: Samuel Eells, who died in Cincinnati in 1842; Lorenzo Latham, who died in New Orleans in 1860; Henry Lemuel Storrs, whose death, in 1852, closed the early career of an eloquent and devoted minister; Oliver Andrew Morse, who died in 1870; and John S. Underwood, whose death occurred in 1873. In this enterprise Samuel Eells exercised a controlling influence.

These men felt an organization was needed that would contain corrections of the faults in the societies which existed at that time. A constitution drawn up by Mr. Eells was accepted, and in 1832 the society became the solid foundation of the modern Alpha Delta Phi Society.

The Chapter, in 1882, erected the "Samuel Eells Memorial Hall," a stone building, in honor of the founder, which served as the hall of the Chapter until June, 1928, when construction of a new house was begun. The new chapter house, also known as "Samuel Eells Memorial Hall," was completed and first occupied in the fall of 1929. At that time the remains of Samuel Eells were removed to the Samuel Eells Memorial Hall.

In the fall of 1930 Walter and Anna Schmitt became connected with the Chapter, and in the succeeding years have run the kitchen and cared for the house during vacations with skill and devotion that has endeared them in the hearts of two generations of Hamilton Alpha Delts.

In September, 1932, the mother chapter acted as host to the other chapters at the Centenary of the founding of the Fraternity.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY

HARVARD CHAPTER

THE HARVARD CHAPTER

1837–1865, 1879–1907

In 1836 there was in Harvard College no purely literary society to which Seniors and Juniors belonged as active members. The clubs were convivial or dramatic clubs, and active membership in the Institute and Iota Omicron Eta—which were debating societies rather than literary societies—ceased with the sophomore year. There existed at the same time a good nucleus for such an organization in the committee of editors of Harvardiana, a College monthly, which was conducted with some spirit by the classes of '35, '36, '37, and '38. The editors of Harvardiana, in '37 and '38, were men of decided ability, among them James Russell Lowell, '38. The suggestion was made to the editors of the class of '37, that they should form a literary society to be affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi. The men from '38 chose, as their successors in the society, the five editors of Harvardiana, who were to follow them.

The club had the decided advantage of being absolutely prohibited by the authorities. The Faculty was not fond of any society in those days, and would have given no permission for the formation of a new one, least of all to the founding of a secret society affiliated with other colleges. The consciousness of this prohibition gave all the more zest to the meetings. The society hired a room in Holyoke Street, and provided the better magazines of the day to make it a reading-room. They laid out a good deal of literary work, and they seem to have done it. The standard was rather that of the press than that of public speaking, and the papers written and criticized were written as if for a magazine or review. This was the ideal of the society for many years.

With the class of '65 the society was discontinued at Harvard.

In the winter of 1878–79 the desire sprang up among several of the Juniors and Seniors to reëstablish the society, with very much the same wish which had led to its formation at Cambridge. The most active members again were the editors of the College newspapers, and they proposed the reëstablishment of the society. The graduate members, who had always looked with regret on its discontinuance, were well pleased at the idea of a revival. The Convention of 1877 having given powers to a committee of graduates, in February, '79, the chairman of the committee, with the assistance of several members of the Fraternity, initiated four gentlemen from the two upper classes, and gave them power to elect and initiate members into the revived Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi.

In the autumn of 1896 ground was broken for a new house, which was opened in the late spring of 1897.

The Chapter was again withdrawn in 1907 at the instance of its members, who found it difficult to fulfill their obligations to the Fraternity and at the same time conform to the customs of the Club System at Harvard. The members formed the Fly Club which still continues active among the local organizations of the Harvard undergraduates.

HOBART COLLEGE

GENEVA CHAPTER

THE GENEVA CHAPTER

1840–1876

On the evening of March 23, 1840, Mr. George Underwood and Mr. James Wickes Taylor, members of the Hamilton Chapter, organized the Geneva Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, initiating two from the Senior Class, two from the Junior Class, and one from the Sophomore Class, together with Morse Stewart, a medical student of Penn Yan, and formerly a member of Hamilton College.

It seems to have been the custom at that time for secret societies to obtain charters, wherever established, from the college authorities. In this case, objection had been made by the Faculty that the specific objects of the society were unknown to any of their body. In May Rev. Benjamin Hale, President of the College, was invited to become a member. This invitation was accepted, and on August 4 President Hale was duly initiated, and ever remained deeply interested in the Chapter and the society.

Until the closing of the Chapter in May, 1876, the history of the Geneva Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi is, with unimportant exceptions, a record of continued and gratifying success.

The early rule of the society, that no elections or initiations could be made till the third term Sophomore, was soon felt by this Chapter to be a drag. In 1842 we find the Chapter earnestly agitating for a repeal of the rule, and the adoption of one which would leave each Chapter to judge for itself the time of election and initiation.

While it never was the policy of the Chapter to take a man simply for his class standing, it is felt to be a matter of congratulation that the ability to win college honors was so often found conjoined with those other characteristics sought for in the choice of members.

To the members of the Chapter, the Chapter was known as "Our Lady of the Lake," and, by a pleasant fiction, it was in honor of "Our Lady" that Commencement reunions were held.

From 1864 to 1873 the Chapter indulged in a navy; and on the waters of the silver Seneca was waged many a contest with "hostile friends" and others. It was a period of great interest in the history of the Chapter. The Alpha Delta Phi navy survived its rivals, and died at last from want of a foeman. The champion flag is today among the archives of the Chapter.

With sister chapters the Geneva Chapter ever cultivated the most cordial relations; but it felt itself especially bound to Hamilton as its parent and to Cornell as its child.

The Chapter was closed in May, 1876. On account of unhappy dissensions in the Board of Trustees, a sudden and great reduction in the number of students attending the College took place that year, and after consultation, it was deemed best to withdraw the Chapter.

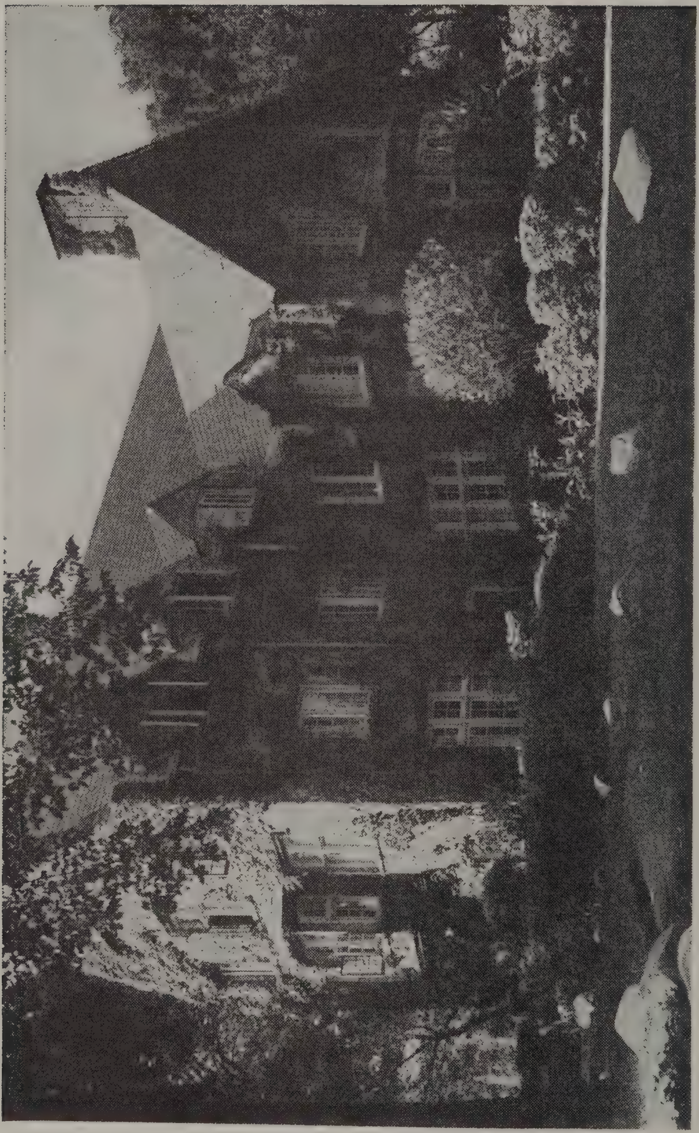
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

ILLINOIS CHAPTER



ILLINOIS

THE ILLINOIS CHAPTER

1911–

In February, 1903, twelve men at the University of Illinois organized a local fraternity which took the name of Pi Theta. The organization's prime object was to secure a charter to become a chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. This was the result of contact with a number of members of Alpha Delta Phi, especially two of the faculty of the University of Illinois, Herbert Jewett Barton, Professor of Latin, Dartmouth and Middletown, '76, and Elliot Judd Northrup, Professor of Law, Amherst, '92.

Upon organization, the group rented a house in which the members lived and had their meals together. The membership was composed entirely of men of standing and attainment in the University, and the group from its inception had the good will and respect of the University authorities.

The first formal petitions for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi were not granted, but the local organization had gained importance as a local fraternity and by the year 1906, it commanded the respect of a very considerable number of the Chapters of Alpha Delta Phi.

Following the 1908 Convention of Alpha Delta Phi, representatives from all the Chapters, upon invitation visited Illinois and the Pi Theta Fraternity. In 1911, the Charter was granted and the Illinois Chapter was installed at the University Club in Chicago, Illinois, on January 13, 1912.

After the installation, Professor Barton became resident counselor and continued in that capacity until his death in September, 1933. The Illinois Chapter owes much to his memory for his great loyalty to Alpha Delta Phi, his exemplification of the finest traditions and ideals of the Fraternity, and his sympathetic leadership.

The Chapter is also indebted to Brother Henry W. Austin, Williams, '88, who was a frequent visitor on the campus and a wise counselor until his death in 1947, and who was, more than any one else, responsible for the material progress of the Chapter from a small rented house to a beautiful modern fraternity house.

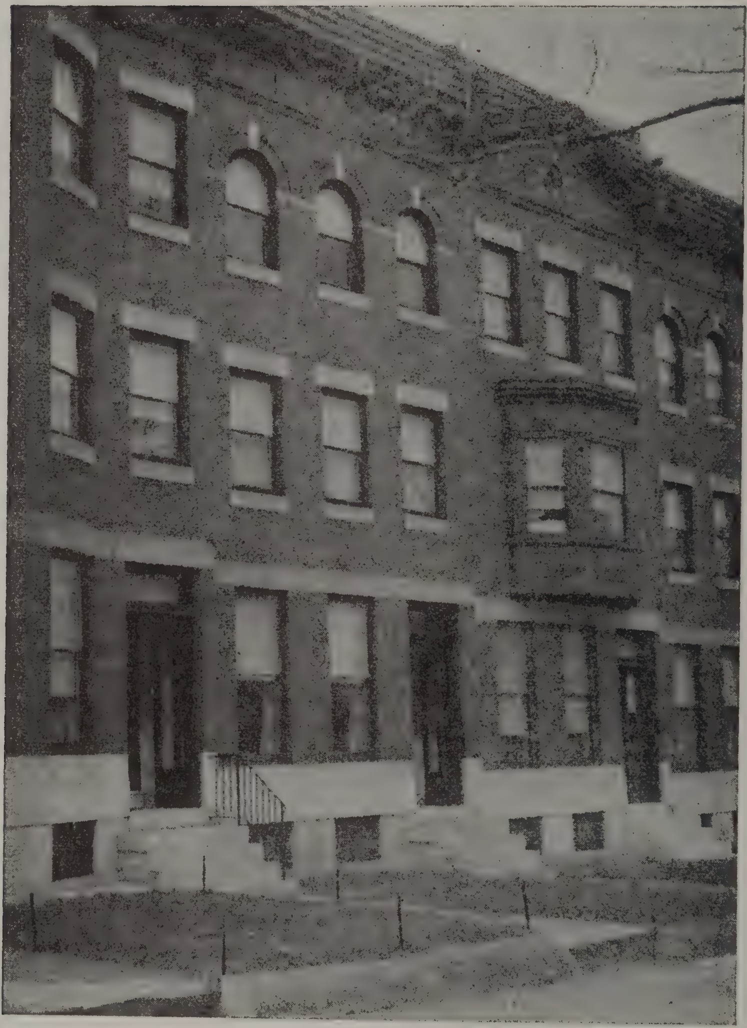
JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

JOHNS HOPKINS CHAPTER



JOHNS HOPKINS

THE JOHNS HOPKINS CHAPTER

1889–

In November, 1888, there gathered together a band of graduate and undergraduate students in this University, intending to procure a charter from the Alpha Delta Phi Fraternity.

After overcoming the determined opposition of several Fratres in Facultate, a formal application, signed by fourteen, endorsed by all the Fratres in Facultate, and by prominent Fratres in Urbe, was sent to the Executive Council, which voted unanimously to report the application unfavorably to the several Chapters of Alpha Delta Phi.

In the meantime, in Baltimore, a preliminary organization was effected under whose aggressive direction the project was ultimately brought to a successful termination.

When the Executive Council first reported unfavorably, two interested brothers of Phi Kappa had a long interview with its Chairman, persuaded him to withhold the report of the vote, to call another meeting, and to allow the Johns Hopkins men to send representatives, who should be allowed to speak before the meeting.

Accordingly, on February 1, 1889, two representatives went to New York, were thoroughly coached by the two Phi Kappa brothers and were duly presented to the Council. Armed with letters and documents from President Gilman and the preliminary organization, our representatives induced the Council to consent unanimously and to report enthusiastically in our favor. Then followed a long wait, on account of many vexatious delays, during which the preliminary organization was perfected. This took unto itself the name Alpha Delta Epsilon: (Aspiro Dum Expiro) i.e., "While there's life there's hope."

It was in those days that another Phi Kappa brother made a tour of the New York and Western Chapters and persuaded them to vote for us. On his return to the East he went to Yale and induced that Chapter to regard us with favor. Finally, all had voted for us.

On May 6, nine Johns Hopkins men proceeded to New Haven. At nine P.M., under the auspices of the Executive Council, they were initiated, and our Chapter was founded in the presence of nearly a hundred brothers, young and old, from all parts of the country. At midnight the new Chapter met and elected its officers, also delegates to the Convention which was to be held with the Yale Chapter the next morning.

Convention over, the new Chapter left for home, where, on the following Tuesday, May 14, three brothers were initiated.

The years 1891–92 and 1892–93 found us established on a fairly firm basis. Our reputation as a fraternity at the University has extended throughout the City of Baltimore and the alumni of our institution.

The Johns Hopkins Chapter was host to the 107th Convention of Alpha Delta Phi in September, 1939.

KENYON COLLEGE

KENYON CHAPTER

KENYON

THE KENYON CHAPTER

1858–

"The Kenyon Chapter received its charter in the year 1858. Tradition tells us that we are chiefly indebted to old Yale for this blessing . . ." This quotation is from the semi-centennial catalogue of 1882 which describes the first meeting of the Chapter, at which time the charter members were initiated by a delegation from Miami. At first, meetings were held in various rooms, but this proving unsatisfactory, the historic Lodge (now the oldest in the country) was built in 1860 and is still in use.

Owing to the tendency toward university growth, the student body at classical Kenyon is small, and as a result the Chapter has never assumed large proportions. Her membership today is smaller than that of the majority of her sister chapters. But this deficiency in numbers has only served to stimulate her energy, and the years which have passed have witnessed marked improvements. While residential chapter houses have no place in Gambier under the College regulations, the East Wing of "Old Kenyon," set apart for the Chapter's exclusive use, answers the same purpose admirably. This fine stone dormitory, which was erected in 1828, was totally destroyed by fire in 1949 but the next year was rebuilt, the exterior being identical with that of the original and the interior being modern in every way as to furnishing and equipment, and by the autumn the Chapter had returned to their historic quarters where they continue their successful pursuit of literature, the cultivation of friendship, and the preservation of the Fraternity's distinguished name.

McGILL UNIVERSITY

McGILL CHAPTER

McGILL

THE McGILL CHAPTER

1897–

The first meeting held in Montreal with the object of forming a provisional society to apply for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi took place on a Sunday afternoon early in 1895. The meeting place was a bedroom in a boarding house on University Street. Besides the two whose bedroom it was, there were present four others. Ways and means were discussed and it was agreed to meet every Sunday at one of the homes. Six new members were added. After two or three months a room for meetings was rented in a boarding house in Mansfield Street, and the group assumed the title of the Alpha Epsilon Kappa Fraternity. Later the headquarters of the group moved to two fairly large and comfortable rooms over a shop in St. Catherine Street. There was a steady growth in numbers and solidarity, and prestige was greatly enhanced in university circles by the addition to the list of members of several members of the faculty. By the beginning of 1896 there had developed a strong and active local fraternity.

From the very first the McGill "local" was encouraged by the Toronto Chapter in an effort to obtain a charter. They sent more than one deputation on an errand of inspection and as their requirements were satisfied they used their influence to the utmost on behalf of the petitioners. The McGill Chapter owes a great debt of gratitude to the Toronto Chapter. Deputations also came from the United States. The inspection was nothing if not searching and caused no small amount of perturbation. Finally the petition was granted and the McGill Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi received the charter on May 11, 1807.

One hundred and thirty-three brothers were in service during the Great War. Thirty-nine were wounded, seventeen killed in action or died in service, and sixty-seven received honors and citations. The library of the chapter house is dedicated as a War Memorial, suitably decorated with many pictures of the Brothers who served their King and Country.

In the second World War, one hundred and eighty-three brothers from this Chapter served in the various armed services, both of the Commonwealth and United States. Of those, twenty-two brothers were killed in action or died in the service. The Alumni and active brothers of the McGill Chapter are very proud of this service record.

The activities of the Active Chapter during the war years were greatly curtailed and in fact in 1943 there were only four active brothers. Only the generous assistance of the Alumni Organization enabled the house to function as a fraternity.

With the return of the servicemen in 1945 and 1946 the ranks of the Active Chapter were swelled to sixty-two active brothers, a number far in excess of that desired for the efficient running of the Chapter. Those years were fraught with difficulties but these have been mainly overcome and again the Chapter has assumed its prominent place on the campus and is among the leaders in all branches of college activity.

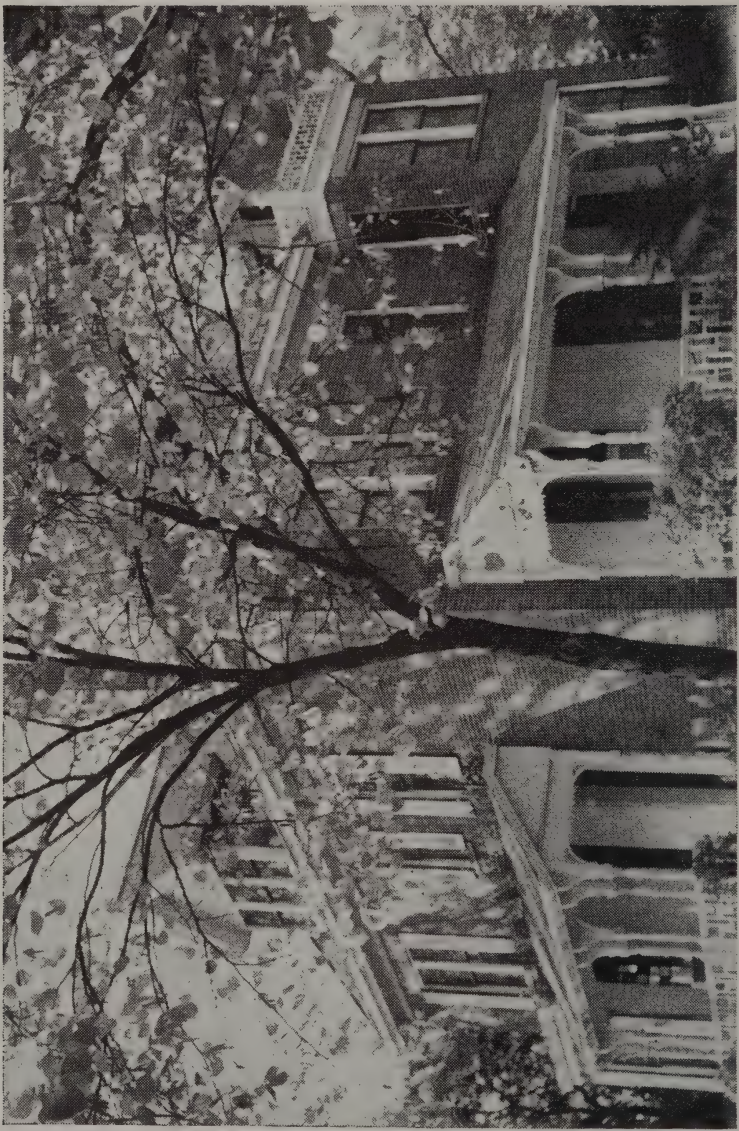
MIAMI UNIVERSITY

MIAMI CHAPTER



MIAMI

THE MIAMI CHAPTER

1835–1873; 1951–

The oldest and one of the newest fraternities at Miami University is the Miami Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, founded by Samuel Eells. The Miami Chapter was the first fraternity west of the Alleghenies as well as the first at Miami. It set the pattern and provided the inspiration for the founding of the Miami Triad—Beta Theta Pi in 1839, Phi Delta Theta in 1848 and Sigma Chi in 1855. Miami University has been referred to as the "Mother of Fraternities" and it was Samuel Eells who brought the concept of the Fraternity to Miami when he moved to Cincinnati in 1833 to practice law, and the Chapter was consummated at the initiation of C. L. Telford, and J. B. Temple into Alpha Delta Phi in November, 1835.

The Chapter flourished for 40 years until June of 1873 when Miami University was closed to students for an indefinite period and the Miami Chapter ceased to exist. Although the Chapter was never large, it was of high quality. Several buildings on the Miami campus today are named after members of the old Miami Chapter—Bishop Hall, Bonham House, Elliott, Stoddard, Swing, and Reid Halls—to name but a few.

When Miami University reopened in 1885, the Chapter did not return. Thereafter there were several unsuccessful attempts to re-establish the Chapter. In fact, the present chapters of more than one famous national fraternity at Miami University were originally organized as locals intent upon petitioning Alpha Delta Phi. Unsuccessful in their efforts, they eventually petitioned and were admitted by other fraternities.

A new page in the history of the Chapter began in 1947 when representatives of the Midwest Association of Alpha Delta Phi organized the 1833's, a local fraternity whose express purpose was to petition Alpha Delta Phi for re-establishment of its Miami Chapter. Under the careful guidance and support of Midwestern Alpha Delts and with the aid and encouragement of Miami University, which housed The 1833's in the Pines dormitory, the group grew and became a strong organization on the campus. On May 19, 1951, The 1833's were initiated into Alpha Delta Phi, and the Miami Chapter was re-established.

In 1953 the Miami Association of Alpha Delta Phi was formed to give financial support, alumni counsel, and advice to the young Chapter. Since there were no surviving alumni of the old Miami Chapter, the Association was founded by and composed of interested Alpha Delts in the Cincinnati area, all of whom are alumni of other Chapters.

In September of 1954 the Association purchased a large brick house on 22 South Campus Avenue in Oxford. Located on the northwestern edge of the campus between the University and the Oxford business district, it is probably the most ideally situated fraternity house in Oxford.

The Chapter has become firmly re-established with a strong and enthusiastic alumni organization; a spacious, attractive and well-located house; and a membership of some 38 brothers active in campus organizations, varsity sports, and ranking first in scholarship among the 19 fraternities at Miami University.

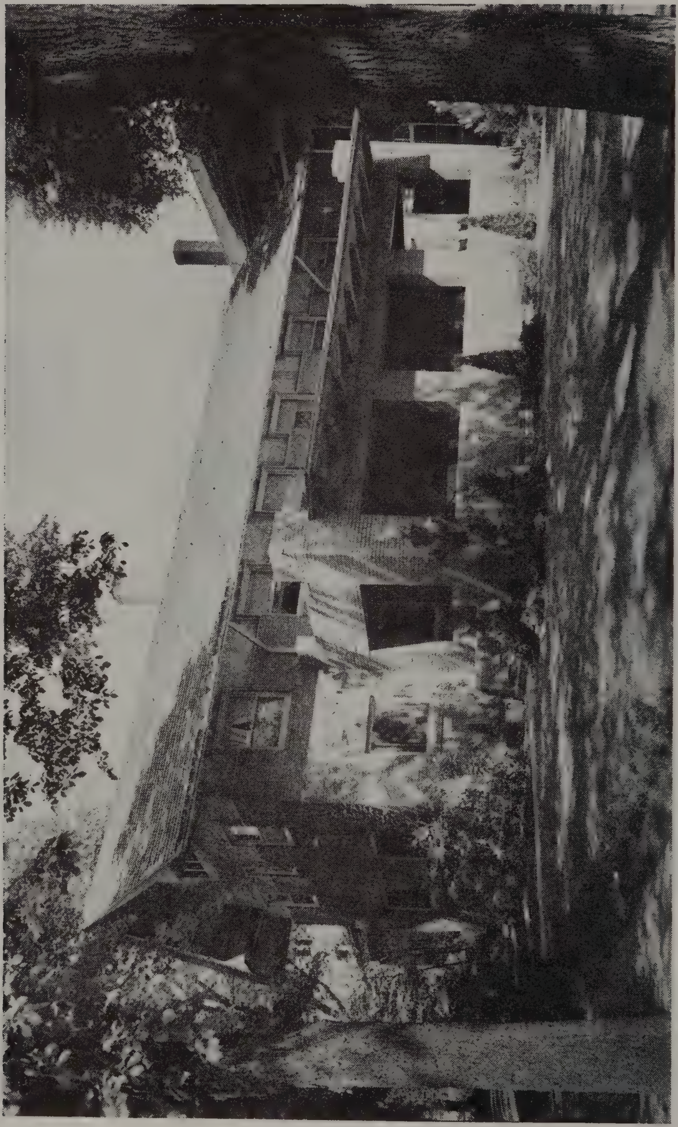
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

PENINSULAR CHAPTER



MICHIGAN

THE PENINSULAR CHAPTER

1846–

On June 12, 1846, William Henry Goodrich, Yale, '43, who was at that time President of the Fraternity, wrote to Rufus Nutting, Hudson, '43, authorizing him to establish a chapter of Alpha Delta Phi at the University of Michigan. Brother Nutting evidently delegated his authority to others, for we learn that on August 5, directly after the conferring of diplomas, Henry Adoniram Swift, Hudson, '42, and Robert Ransom Kellogg, Urban, '35, led a group of seven students to a little office just off the college grounds, where they were duly initiated and Peninsular Chapter of our Fraternity organized.

From 1847 to 1852 the Chapter was engaged in a struggle for existence with the college authorities. As a measure designed to meet the unwillingness of the authorities to consent to the existence of the Chapter in connection with the University, a branch of the Chapter, independent of the College, was established in Ann Arbor. However, in the college year 1845–46, the Faculty passed a rule providing, among other things, that no student could be admitted into a class without first signing a pledge that he would not be a member of any secret society not approved by the Faculty.

An attempt to enforce this regulation in the spring of 1847, under threat of expulsion, was followed by a compromise whereby the Chapter waived its claim to non-connection with the University and acknowledged the rule passed by the Board of Regents which demanded that a secret society's existence depended upon the Faculty's approval, while the Faculty decided that it had no power under the rules to legalize the Fraternity, thus confessing its lack of authority over the Chapter. The compromise did not last long and, following the graduation of the class of '49, the contest was renewed in the expulsion of all members of secret societies. The dispute which followed attracted the attention of the State and the press, and resulted in the reinstatement of the expelled students.

In the spring of 1851 the Faculty went to the extremity of expelling undergraduates and readmitting them only when they agreed to refrain from exercising their fraternity rights until after graduation. Under this procedure the chapter's active membership was reduced to three, but these three were as good as a host by reason of their resolute determination and a decided public sentiment in their favor. The Faculty then demanded the privilege of inspecting the constitution, and the Chapter refused. The struggle finally ended in the full recognition of the Chapter by the Faculty as of legal and regular standing in the University.

In the years that followed the Chapter made steady growth. In 1883 the Chapter moved into the stone building at 566 South State Street, the first fraternity house to be erected at Michigan. This house was occupied continuously until 1910. The present structure stands on the site of the old one, in full view of the Michigan campus.

Although thirteenth in order of founding Peninsular Chapter now ranks as the sixth oldest Chapter in continuous, active existence. This Chapter has been host to four Conventions; the 53rd in 1885, the 64th in 1896, the 89th in 1921 and the 111th–114th in 1946.

During World War II the University of Michigan took over the operation of the house in July 1943 to supplement their dormitory facilities. The Chapter moved back into the house and resumed its activities in March of 1946.

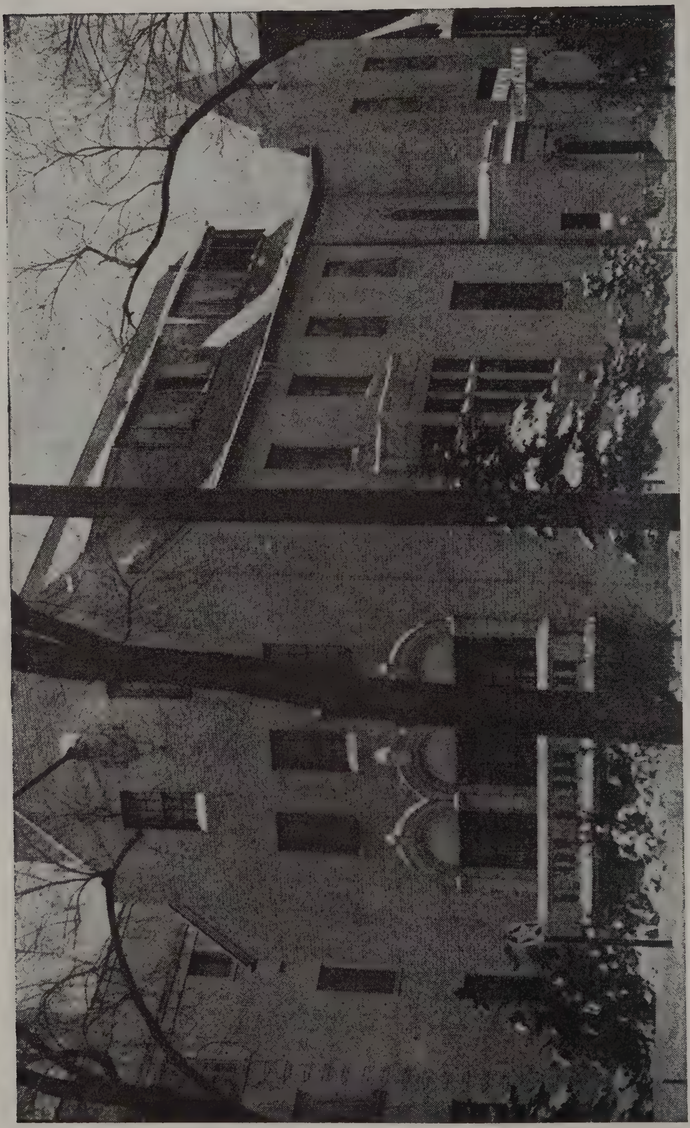
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

MINNESOTA CHAPTER



MINNESOTA

THE MINNESOTA CHAPTER

1892–

In the spring of 1890, a movement was first made by a small group of students at the University to obtain a charter for a chapter of the Fraternity. They presented a petition at its next convention, which was referred to the Johns Hopkins Chapter to investigate and report, but little or nothing was done.

As a result, however, the local alumni residing in Minneapolis and Saint Paul, at the request of this group, took the matter up and made a thorough investigation of all the men who desired to become charter members and selected from their number five (5), who organized themselves as a local society under the name of Alpha Delta Epsilon for the purpose of holding together until a charter could be obtained. At this time William Watts Folwell, Geneva Chapter, 1857, and President of the University of Minnesota, became interested and it was largely through his sponsorship that the Minnesota Chapter was later founded.

A petition was formulated and signed by leading alumni in the Northwest and presented for the consideration of the convention held in Baltimore during May 1891.

On November 24, 1891, the Executive Council ordered the Charter to be issued. Five charter members were initiated at this time under the auspices of the local alumni of the Twin Cities on February 22, 1892. This Chapter had also been endorsed by many of the alumni associations, including those of Omaha, Chicago, Buffalo, and Cleveland, and at the initiation there were present forty-three members representing sixteen different Chapters, whose members resided not only in the Northwest, but also in Omaha, Chicago and New York.

Owing to the fact that most of the leading fraternities had been represented in the University for several years prior to our Chapter's installation and had built up a strong local body of young alumni in the Twin Cities, extra effort has been required to maintain the high standing of Alpha Delta Phi. However, by keeping before it as its watchword "quality and not numbers," the Chapter has been able to maintain its position on the campus.

The Chapter has been fortunate in having its own Chapter House during all but the earlier part of its history. In 1925, the old house was razed and the present fine structure erected on the same ground opposite the campus.

World War II started its drain on the active brothers in 1940. In 1942, when this efflux was at its peak, the house was leased through the University to the Navy. Many fraternities on the campus, finding themselves in similar circumstances, suspended their activities, but not Alpha Delta Phi. In spite of the depleted membership and lack of a meeting place, the Chapter pursued its normal functions during this trying period. Meetings were held in the Union for a time and later a vacated fraternity house was leased.

The post-war reconversion was heralded by the return of the house in 1945 and the gradually growing ranks due to returning veterans. Much credit must be given the men who so well kept alive the spirit, ideals and activities of Alpha Delta Phi on the Minnesota campus during the war, and those veterans, who returned from the war, threw themselves into the job of getting the Fraternity speedily back to normal conditions. Thanks to their combined efforts, the Chapter attained top standing on the campus which the intervening and present memberships may proudly say they have maintained.

Two Alumni organizations exist in the Twin Cities for the promotion of Alpha Delta Phi. The one, the Northwest Alumni Association, furnishes an opportunity for the Alumni from all chapters to preserve their connections with the Fraternity. The other, the Minnesota Alumni Association, was established for those primarily interested in the direct and active support of the local chapter.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

URBAN CHAPTER

THE URBAN CHAPTER

1835–1839

The Urban Chapter, connected with the University of the City of New York, was established, as were the first five Chapters of the Fraternity, through the efforts of graduate members of the Hamilton Chapter, or undergraduates who had left that college for other institutions. In the case of Urban, Daniel Huntington, Hamilton, '36, who on Christmas Eve, 1835, under power conferred upon him by the Mother Chapter, initiated Arthur Cleveland Coxe, a student in the University, afterwards the distinguished Bishop of Western New York. These two then formally established the new Chapter, and others were speedily added to the number. At first the organization was known as the "Red Ribbon," to distinguish its members from the "White Ribbon," of Columbia; but, in 1836, the name "Urban Chapter" was adopted. John Jay and John Henry Hobart were initiated for the purpose of enabling them to found a Chapter in Columbia College, in which they succeeded. Similarly, in accordance with the then existing law, three students in "Nassau Hall College," Princeton, New Jersey, were initiated with the intention of perpetuating the Fraternity in that institution; but this purpose was not carried out for reasons not now known, as all three have died. Urban Chapter also assisted in the establishment of Chapters at Yale, Harvard, and Brown Universities. In 1839 the charter was voluntarily surrendered by the Chapter.

THE NORTHWESTERN CHAPTER

On October 20, 1939, the Northwestern Chapter was established when the undergraduate members and a number of alumni of the Wranglers Fraternity were initiated into the Alpha Delta Phi.

The Wranglers was founded on May 20, 1903, by a group of eight Northwestern University men who, holding a mutual allegiance to the ideals of high scholarship, Christian manhood, and brotherhood, banded together to form a local fraternity which has perpetuated those ideals to the present day. The name "Wranglers" was chosen to indicate the independence and aggressiveness of the group, and the name has added significance in Cambridge English where it refers to an honors group.

Existing for some time as the only local fraternity among twenty national organizations at Northwestern, the Chapter steadily accumulated a record which placed it high in the estimation of faculty members, other fraternity men, and townspeople. The fraternity was offered a number of opportunities to affiliate with well-known national fraternities, but it was not until 1937 that the active chapter, recognizing the Alpha Delta Phi to be the outstanding fraternity organization, voted to recommend to the Board of Trustees of the alumni corporation that a petition be presented to the Alpha Delta Phi.

This action resulted from the many close friendships which had grown between Wrangler and Alpha Delta Phi alumni in the vicinity and undergraduate members from the nearby chapters at Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Members and officials of the Midwest Association of Alpha Delta Phi were guests of the local society on numerous occasions and became interested in the proposed affiliation. A mutual enthusiasm developed from these friendships and contacts, and the Board of Trustees of the Wranglers Corporation authorized the final petition on July 25, 1938. The Chapter was installed on October 20, 1939, in impressive ceremonies at the First Methodist Church of Evanston.

The Northwestern Chapter now carries on in the best traditions of Alpha Delta Phi and the Wranglers, maintaining its high standing on the campus and the interest of its many loyal alumni. The undergraduate chapter is actively supported by the Wranglers, an Illinois Not for Profit Corporation. Founded in 1916, the corporation includes all alumni and active members. It meets regularly, owns and maintains the fraternity house and each year awards a fellowship to an alumnus of the Chapter who is taking graduate work at the university. The Women's Auxiliary of the Chapter, which was founded in 1933, includes the wives and mothers of the members and holds meetings each month as well as numerous social activities throughout the year. The Auxiliary annually awards a number of partial scholarships and generally contributes to the welfare of the Chapter.

The Northwestern Chapter was host to the 115th International Convention of Alpha Delta Phi in 1947.

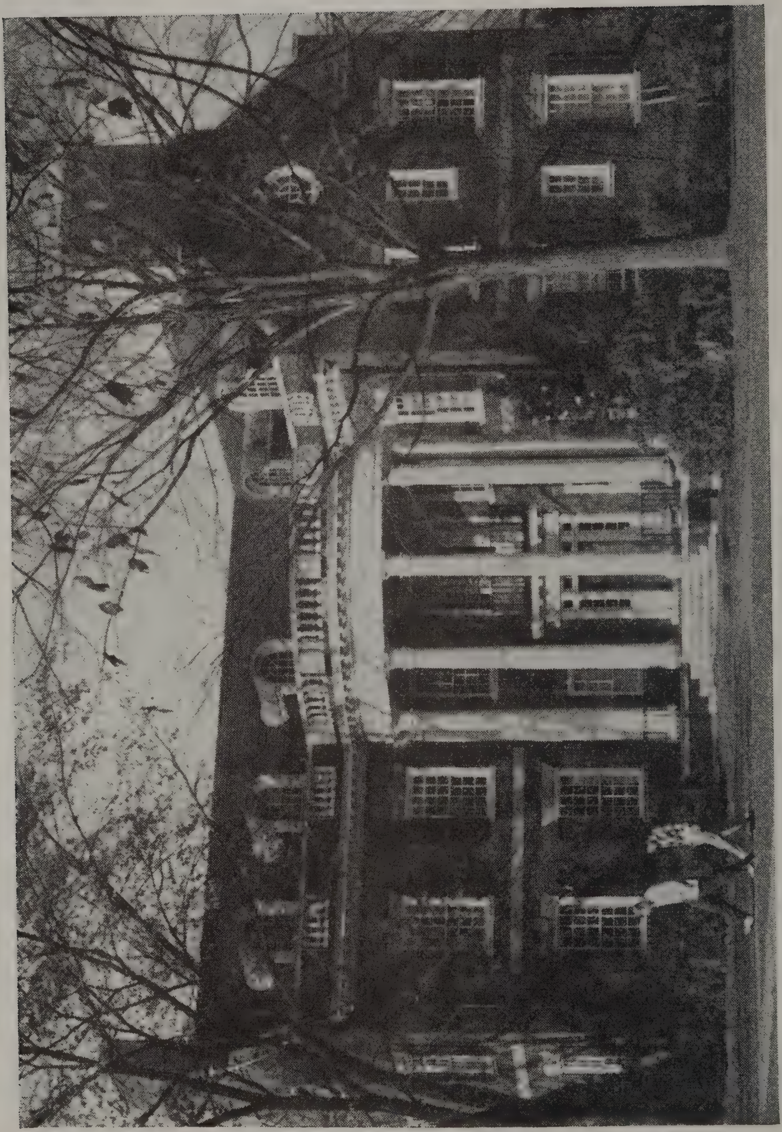
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

ROCHESTER CHAPTER



ROCHESTER

THE ROCHESTER CHAPTER

1850–

The annals of the Rochester Chapter start with a sleigh ride. On the afternoon of February 18, 1850, eight students of Madison University (now Colgate) crowded into a sleigh and drove twenty miles over the snow to Clinton. At the Clinton House, which appears to have been a hotel in the village, they were initiated into the mysteries of Alpha Delta Phi by the Hamilton Chapter.

The minutes of this meeting are still in the archives at Hamilton and state that these eight men "had the intention of a removal to Rochester and the establishment there of a new Chapter." There is no record of any charter having been granted to this group at Madison, and if meetings were held the minutes have not survived.

When the University of Rochester started almost a year later, in November, 1851, over half of both the faculty and the student body at Madison seceded to Rochester. Two of the Alpha Delts had graduated from Madison the previous June and seven more had been initiated making their number thirteen. These were the charter members of the Rochester Chapter—a group which had the unique distinction of being older than the college in which it functioned.

It was by no means all smooth sailing at the start. The faculty was strongly opposed to the starting of any secret societies in the newly launched college and had in fact passed a resolution condemning them. But Professor Kendrick came to the rescue. While not an Alpha Delt himself he had been a classmate and close friend of Samuel Eells at Hamilton. This was enough. He knew that any brotherhood conceived and established by Brother Eells must be good. Being a man of strong personality and acting President, he made this point. This early opposition and its ultimate defeat with the aid of Professor Kendrick may explain why the first recorded meeting at Rochester was not held in November, 1850, as we might expect, but in September, 1851.

The complete series of minute books recording the Chapter's meetings has been preserved and the first entry in Volume I is dated September 16, 1851. It reports that "the Society met in the basement of the one and only college building, in the janitor's parlor, as no regular place of meeting had been procured." The secretary was instructed to write to the Hamilton Chapter with regard to procuring a charter.

On May 31, 1852, came a letter from Brother Day, President of the Fraternity, containing the welcome news that the charter had been granted. The Chapter was at first called the Empire Chapter, and this name was retained until about 1860, when it was changed to the present name of the Rochester Chapter.

During the first years of its existence, the College being poor and there being comparatively few students, the Chapter suffered many hardships, being reduced at one time to an active membership of three men. As the College became richer and more prosperous the Chapter became stronger in proportion, and now occupies a secure and honorable position among the institutions of the University of Rochester.

THE STANFORD CHAPTER

1916–

In August of the year 1911, on the campus of the young but lusty Stanford University, a group of men united in forming the Cardinal Club for the purpose of eventually petitioning for the Stanford Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi.

Leading the group were three seniors of the class of 1912 who expressed as their objective the development of those qualities of character, scholarship, and literary ability that would be worthy of Alpha Delta Phi.

By the year 1913, the members of the club considered that their organization had shown its calibre and vigor and was in the strategic position to carry its plea for membership to the Alpha Delta Phi. In October, the petition was drawn up. At that time there were twenty-two men in the club, all prominent on the local campus.

Helping with the organization of the club were two members of Alpha Delta Phi, who lived in the house and helped in the general organization of the business of the chapter. The California Chapter sent a committee of three men each week to advise and instruct the petitioning body.

Other sponsors were the Pacific Graduate Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi, and the three members of Alpha Delta Phi on the faculty of the University.

It was not until 1915, when the Alpha Delta Phi Convention was held in San Francisco during the Panama Pacific Exposition that the petition of the Cardinal Club was formally presented to the Chapters of Alpha Delta Phi. Many of the delegates to the Convention visited the campus at Palo Alto and met individual members of the Cardinal Club. On April 17, 1916, the Cardinal Club first learned that it had been granted a Charter. The formal installation of the new Stanford Chapter was held in May at the California Chapter house.

Since its inception, the Chapter has held a leading place among Stanford Greek letter fraternities. Stanford Alpha Delts have been prominent in student government, publications, and athletics.

The Fraternity held its 106th Annual Convention under the joint auspices of the Stanford and California Chapters at Del Monte, California, in 1938.

The Chapter was inactive for approximately three years during World War II; the house, along with all other fraternity houses being rented by the University and used as a dormitory unit. The Chapter was reactivated in the fall of 1946 and has resumed its position among the leading fraternities at Stanford.

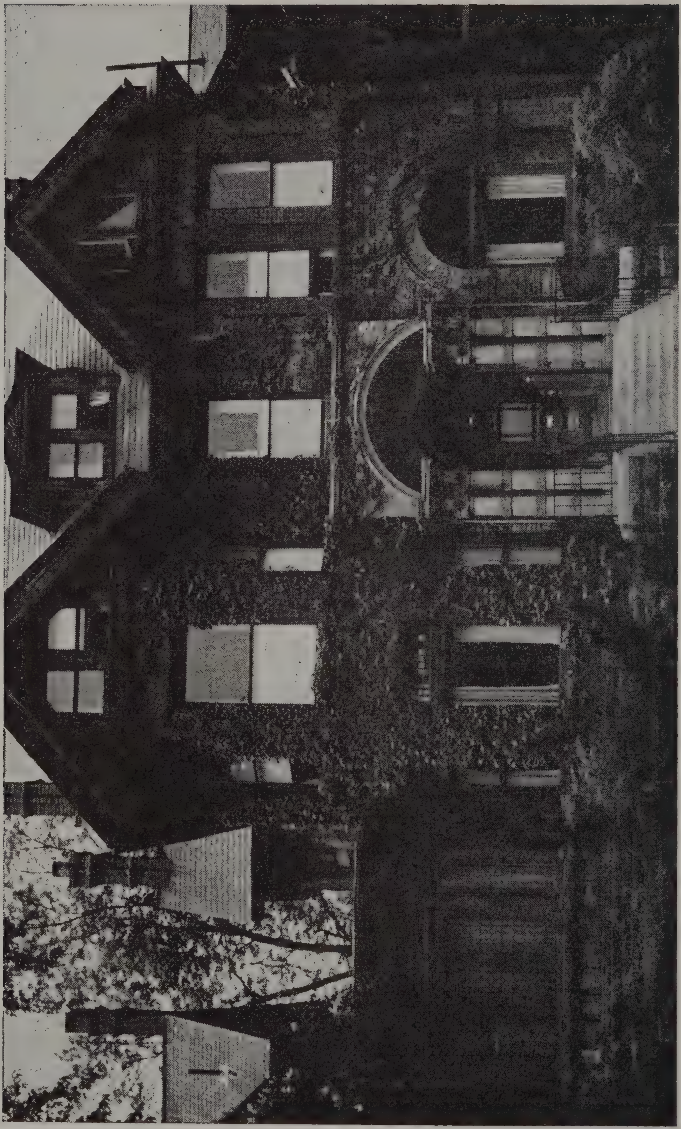
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

TORONTO CHAPTER



TORONTO

THE TORONTO CHAPTER

1893–

The establishment of the Toronto Chapter was an important event in the history of the Fraternity since it marked its entrance into the international field. This initial move was followed by the establishment of chapters at McGill University, Montreal, in 1897, and at the University of British Columbia in 1926.

The Toronto Chapter was granted to a group which had been formed in April, 1892, for the express purpose of petitioning Alpha Delta Phi. The group was carefully chosen from graduate and undergraduate members of the University and included three prominent members of the faculty. The petition was considered by the convention held in Utica in May, 1892, and the petitioning body was carefully investigated by several delegations that visited Toronto in 1892–93.

Subsequently the charter was granted in May, 1893, and as many as possible of the Provisional Society proceeded to New York to be initiated on June 10 under the auspices of the Columbia Chapter with Brother Clarence A. Seward, President of the Fraternity, presiding.

The new members were accompanied to Toronto by two brothers of the Columbia Chapter and on June the thirteenth the remaining members of the group were initiated. A chapter house was immediately secured, the first to be established at the University, and since then the chapter has enjoyed a successful career. It has been honored by the election of several of its members as officers of the Fraternity. The Toronto Chapter was preceded by only two other fraternities on the campus, Zeta Psi and Kappa Alpha.

During the war of 1914–18, the Toronto Chapter acquitted itself with merit. Over one hundred members were in the service and of these eighteen were killed. In the spring of 1916 a curious situation arose. All the active members of the chapter were on active service, but the Executive Council adopted a resolution to the effect that the members were to be regarded as on leave of absence. Hence the charter was neither suspended nor revoked. The Chapter is grateful to the seven graduates who supervised the resumption of chapter activities in January 1919.

During World War II over one hundred and fifty members served in the forces. The active chapter, although forced to carry on with greatly reduced members, continued its activities successfully.

Since the war the Chapter has flourished, and its active membership now stands at forty. Brother Colin Gibson, a member of this Chapter, was elected President of the Fraternity in 1948.

The Toronto Chapter has always maintained high scholastic and athletic standards. It will endeavor in the years to come to justify the respect it has acquired on and off the campus.

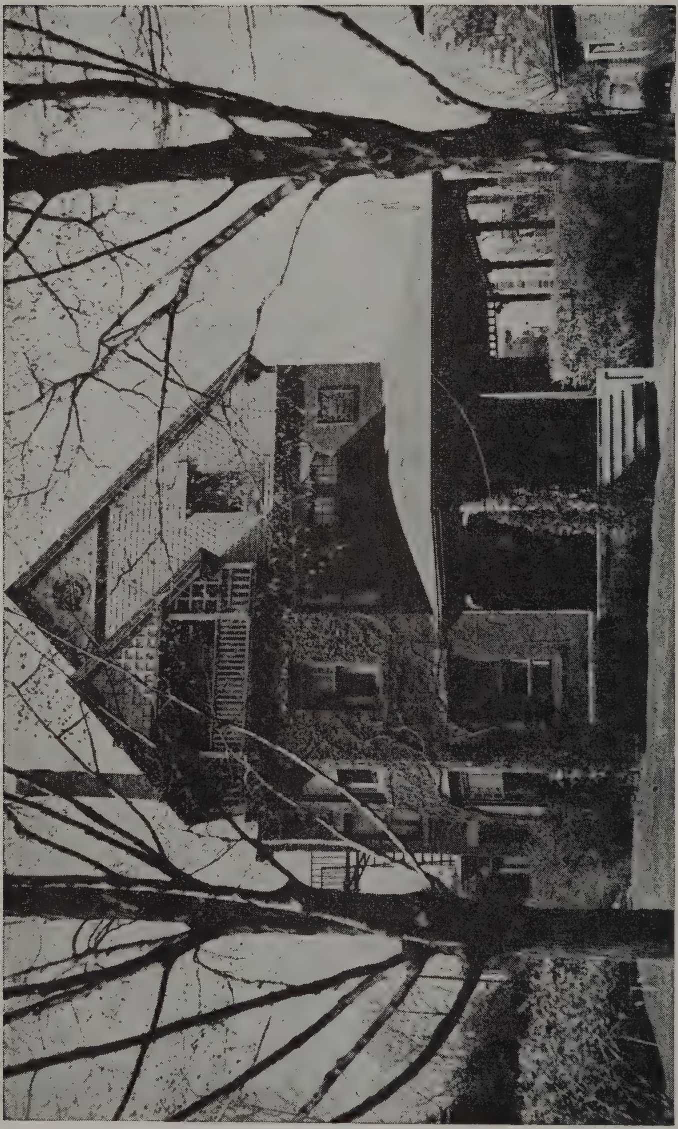
TRINITY COLLEGE

PHI KAPPA CHAPTER



PHI KAPPA

THE PHI KAPPA CHAPTER

1877–

The Phi Kappa Chapter was established on December 20, 1877, when the undergraduate members of the Phi Kappa Fraternity were initiated into the Alpha Delta Phi in accordance with an agreement signed November 23, 1877.

The Phi Kappa Fraternity was founded October 27, 1835, at Trinity College and was the second secret society established there. During its existence of forty-two years as a local society, it had a great influence in the College.

The first National Fraternity to establish a chapter at Trinity was Delta Psi, which founded its Epsilon Chapter there in 1849 from a group of undergraduates not members of any of the then existing societies.

Through the establishment of the Phi Kappa Chapter, Alpha Delta Phi became the second National Fraternity of the College.

It has always been a source of great pride to the Chapter that the long and honorable history of the old Phi Kappa Fraternity was so signally recognized by Alpha Delta Phi when the new Chapter was formed and allowed to be known as the Phi Kappa Chapter.

Since its establishment the history of the Chapter has been one of continued improvement. The old Phi Kappa Society had possessed a hall in a large building in the city of Hartford, and upon the foundation of the Chapter this hall, with its appurtenances, passed into the hands of Alpha Delta Phi. It was, however, soon deemed necessary to increase these facilities; and, accordingly, a commodious ante-room was obtained and thrown into communication with the hall—both apartments being furnished in a tasteful and suitable manner. From time to time additions were made for the convenience and comfort of the members. In the spring of 1890 ground was broken on a lot facing the College property and the erection of a Chapter house begun. It was purposely designed as a dwelling house with the exception of the lodge room on the third floor, so that it could readily be sold whenever the erection of a larger and more modern house on another site should seem desirable. Since its completion nearly 66 years ago it has proved reasonably adequate and decidedly homelike, its most outstanding characteristic. But the recent rapid growth of the College, and with it the Chapter, has emphasized the need for a new house. With this in view the Trustees have been designating certain unrestricted legacies as a building fund, and it is hoped that before very long the Phi Kappa Chapter will have a new home to help it maintain its high standing in the College and the town, and continue to attract a membership that worthily represents the spirit of Alpha Delta Phi.

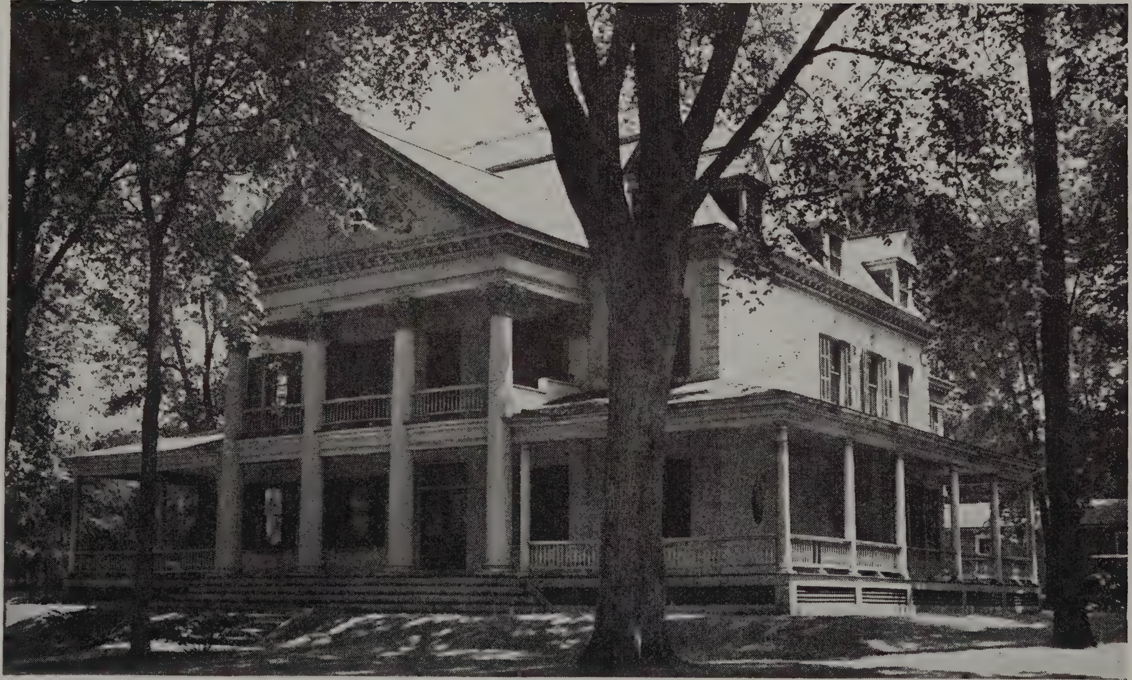
UNION COLLEGE

UNION CHAPTER



UNION

THE UNION CHAPTER

1859–

Union College is world famous as the Mother of fraternities. Therefore, it is natural that the Union Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi had its basic beginning just one year after the founding of our Fraternity at Hamilton College. In 1833 the Fraternal Society had an unusual reputation for the moral and intellectual worth of its members.

This Society realized the benefits to be derived from affiliation with the leading national fraternity and the members believed the aims and principles of Alpha Delta Phi were what they desired. Consequently, early in 1859, one tutor and 16 undergraduates signed a petition for a Union Chapter.

On June 14, a charter signed by Richard Salter Storrs, then President of the Fraternity, was granted. Soon after, the Chapter was duly instituted, with representatives from nearly all the chapters present. The first meeting was held on July 15, 1859, and with the establishment of the Chapter, the Fraternity Society ceased to exist at Union College.

For several years rooms near the campus were occupied, but by 1892 conditions had reached a point where the Chapter needed a home of its own. This vital project was started and carried out by a committee of fifteen prominent Union Alpha Delts. Despite all its troubles, the committee's efforts were crowned with success in the summer of 1898, when the new Chapter house was finished and turned over to the active Chapter.

This distinguished example of friendly colonial architecture, with Corinthian pillars and Mansard roof has been the college home for the members ever since. Strategically located on the main lane running between the famous Payne Gate and the Library, the Union Chapter house was the second fraternity house built on the Union campus.

The erection of the building was made possible by voluntary cash subscriptions. The balance was raised by the issuance of bonds and money borrowed on a promissory note of the Trustees. All but four of these bonds were taken by Alpha Delts. Every bond has long since been retired by outright gifts of the holders or through full or partial payment from the treasury of the Union Association of Alpha Delta Phi, which owns the house.

Many improvements have been added since the erection of the house. These include a mahogany panelled dining room, one of the most beautiful rooms on the campus, and two mantels in memory of brothers. In 1939, the entire interior of the house was redecorated.

In the early days, the active Chapter numbered between fifteen and twenty. The membership stabilized at around twenty-five, though at times it ran over thirty. During World War I the exodus of brothers to enlist left only four members, who constituted the entire active Chapter. In World War II the Chapter house was rented to the College for use by civilian students. The nature of the speed-up plan of college training, and the rapid turnover of students made it advisable in 1943 to declare the Chapter inactive for the duration of the war. The Trustees were also disturbed by the problems of reorganizing at the end of the conflict and in 1944 in an effort to solve these difficulties pledged two sons of members initiating them soon afterwards. Frequent meetings were held by a few alumni with the initiates for indoctrination and on November 4, 1945 the chapter was formally reactivated and within one year had a membership of over thirty brothers.

Three Fraternity conventions have been held under the auspices of the Union Chapter: the first in Schenectady in 1863, the second in the Senate Chamber at Albany in 1874 and the last in Schenectady in 1909.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON CHAPTER

WASHINGTON

THE WASHINGTON CHAPTER

1921–

At the University of Washington, Alpha Delta Phi had its inception in 1909 when a group of men living in a college dormitory became dissatisfied with conditions there and felt the need for closer comradeship.

A cooperative boarding club was organized and in the fall of 1910 this group was named the Kalevala Club. One year later the organization adopted the name of Theta Chi and revised its Constitution. It was this local fraternity, having no relationship to the present national fraternity bearing that name, which was eventually granted a charter by the National Fraternity.

The men of Theta Chi made their objective one of securing a chapter of Alpha Delta Phi. Although charters were offered by various other national fraternities during the ensuing years, the local chapter continued its efforts until the objective was achieved.

Theta Chi presented a petition to the Fraternity in 1913, but insufficient information as to the proper procedure resulted in a tabling of that petition. In deference to a petitioning group at Stanford, Theta Chi forestalled action on its petition until after installation of the chapter at Palo Alto.

Meanwhile, the local fraternity devoted itself to the improvement of its personnel and its status at the University. It was unusually successful in this, and in four of the next six years the local fraternity was first in scholarship and a leader in extracurricular activities.

At the end of World War I, Theta Chi renewed its efforts to have its petition approved by Alpha Delta Phi. The cause was enthusiastically backed by the Pacific Northwest Society of Alpha Delta Phi, by undergraduate students at the University of Washington from other chapters of Alpha Delta Phi, by the University administration, and by the local chapters of several of the other leading national fraternities. Theta Chi's goal was reached when the Washington Chapter was installed on October 29, 1921.

Since that date the Chapter has enjoyed continued growth and continued recognition. Through its contributions to the University—outstanding achievements in the fields of scholarship, athletics and activities—the Chapter is recognized as a leader among fraternities at Washington.

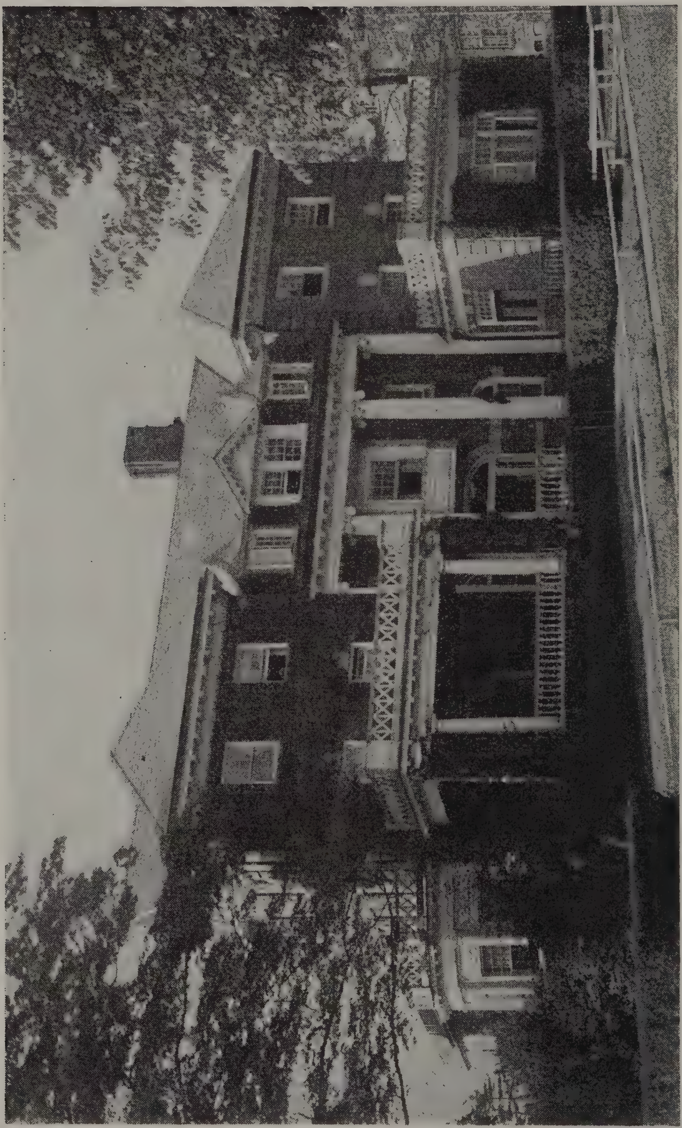
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

MIDDLETOWN CHAPTER



MIDDLETOWN

THE MIDDLETOWN CHAPTER

1856–

The Middletown Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was the eighteenth in order of establishment, receiving its charter on July 31, 1856, and holding its first regular meeting on Saturday evening, August 2. It sprang from the union of two local societies, the Betrians and the Lebanians. The Betrian Society was organized in 1847, from an older association, the Alpha Psi. The Lebanian Society began in 1854 with four members, adding to its roll eight more names during the first year. Its existence was for a time kept secret; but the excellent influence exerted by it upon its members, stimulating them to increased effort, ultimately led to the discovery of the organization. For about a year after 1855, both the Betrians and Lebanians patronized the Chronometer Eating Club and the gastronomic fellowship established, somewhat neutralized the rivalry.

The Annual Convention of Alpha Delta Phi in 1856 was held in New Haven and separate petitions for charters were presented by representatives of each society. However, until the fact was disclosed at the Convention neither society knew that the other was considering a petition to Alpha Delta Phi. Their respective supporters in the Fraternity split the Convention and no decision was reached. It soon became evident that, since either party was powerful enough to defeat the other, neither could succeed of itself. At this juncture a union was proposed. This was finally effected. The united societies were initiated into Alpha Delta Phi at the McDonough House, in Middletown, Connecticut, on the evening of July 31, 1856.

The subsequent history of the Chapter has been, in the greatest measure, what its auspicious birth predicted. In a University where the fraternity life is carried almost to an extreme, with the natural consequence of intense rivalry, Alpha Delta Phi has always been awarded a foremost position. The devotion of undergraduates and alumni have insured to her unvarying success. No fraternity represented at Wesleyan has so enviable a record for the results of the successive fall "cultivation" seasons, because no other can show to the incoming freshman such chapter traditions and such worthy exponents of those traditions. The popularity of her ideals is further shown by the large proportion of her members that are annually called by the student body to fill positions of responsibility and honor.

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

HUDSON CHAPTER

WESTERN RESERVE

THE HUDSON CHAPTER

1841–

The Hudson Chapter, the third oldest chapter of Alpha Delta Phi in point of continuous existence, was founded July 1, 1841, at the Western Reserve College in Hudson, Ohio, by Samuel Eells, the founder of the Fraternity and Joseph Few-Smith, Yale '40, then a tutor at Western Reserve. Mr. Eells was then in the last year of his life, and in failing health; and his coming to Hudson to take the leading part in establishing a Chapter there must have been felt by him to be probably the last service he should be able to render to the Fraternity he loved so well. That the countenance of the Faculty of the College was not lacking is shown by the election to membership of two professors at the second meeting of the Chapter, and of two more shortly after. No secret fraternity had existed at the College before the establishment of the Hudson Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi.

In 1882 the name of the College was changed to "Adelbert College of Western Reserve University," and the College was removed to Cleveland, Ohio. Chapter life in Hudson had been such as is characteristic of a college in a small town where student life centers in and about college dormitories; however, since the removal to Cleveland, both College and Chapter had to adapt themselves to the surroundings of a city as a smaller proportion of the student body resided in the college campus area.

For fifteen years following the removal to Cleveland, the Chapter had its rooms in the Cobb & Bradley block on Euclid Avenue. In 1897, it leased a house on Fairchild Street, near the college grounds. In 1915 the Cleveland Alpha Delta Phi Corporation, with the aid of other members of the Fraternity, purchased a house on Cornell Road. The Chapter remained here until the fall of 1935 when they moved to a house on Mayfield Road, a few blocks from the campus.

The Hudson Chapter became inactive in June, 1943, as World War II called its membership to the colors. Returned from the service the members, with the assistance of the Alumni, reactivated the Chapter in 1947. In 1948 the Alumni organization changed its title to The Hudson Association and purchased a Chapter House at 1665 East 117th Street.

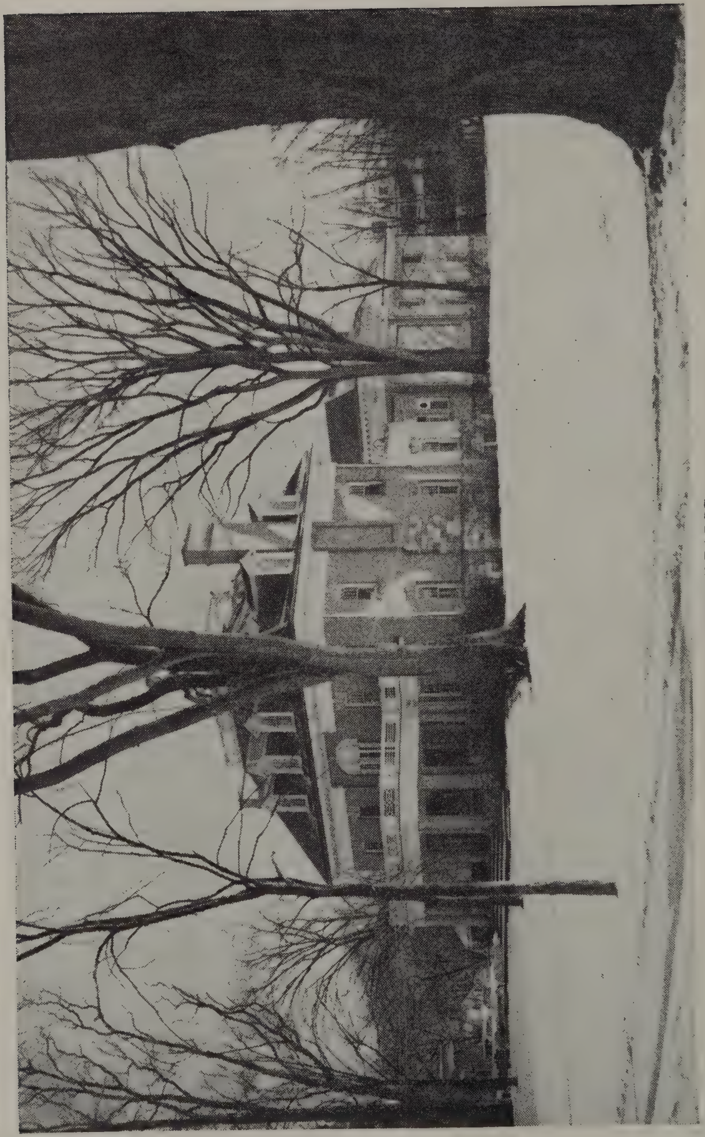
WILLIAMS COLLEGE

WILLIAMS CHAPTER



WILLIAMS

THE WILLIAMS CHAPTER

1851–

The Williams Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was an outgrowth of a chapter of Beta Theta Pi which was founded in 1847. At that time there were no chapters of Beta Theta Pi in the East, so the Williams Chapter, in an effort to remedy that situation, founded a chapter in Brown University in 1848. The abandonment of Beta Theta Pi at Brown was a great blow to the Williams Chapter and eventually resulted in the death of the Chapter at Williams. The Williams group then thought of applying for a chapter of Psi Upsilon but a second group at Williams which had in it strong men, had in the meantime applied for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi. Feeling that two new fraternities were too many for Williams, the old Beta Theta Pi group likewise applied for a charter of Alpha Delta Phi.

Thus the two groups combined and a charter was granted July 1, 1851, when twenty-five men were initiated into the Williams Chapter. As there were not enough badges to go around, the first appearance of the initiates did not occur until July 9 at a college meeting when such excitement was caused that the meeting adjourned at once without taking up the matter for which it had been called.

Naturally the Beta Theta Pi fraternity resented the action which its Williams Chapter had taken. The Williams Chapter was declared defunct and it was further stated: "that in view of the recent breach upon our Association we would suggest the propriety of a judicious extension of Beta Theta Pi mainly at the West."

The Williams Chapter initiates were brought into the Fraternity by several members of the Yale Chapter.

For ten years after its founding the Williams Chapter flourished, but in 1862 it nearly went out of existence. It was the advent in 1863 of Francis Lynde Stetson who was instrumental in bringing in such classmates as G. Stanley Hall, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Henry A. Harmon and Charles Sherwood West which brought the Williams Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi into a position of usefulness and power.

The society had had various lodges up to 1865, until, in October, 1869, a permanent home for the Chapter was completed. On the fifth day of November the hall was dedicated to Alpha Delta Phi. In 1880 a handsome porch, which remains as part of the present house, was erected to the memory of one of the brothers by his family and members of Alpha Delta Phi associated with him in College.

The latter part of July, 1894, a new house was begun, and on March 30, 1895, was occupied for the first time by the Chapter. In 1906 the Lodge was built, and seven years later a library was donated by Howard Eells in loving memory of Samuel Eells. In 1929 a wing was added to the house which now has total accommodations for approximately twenty-five.

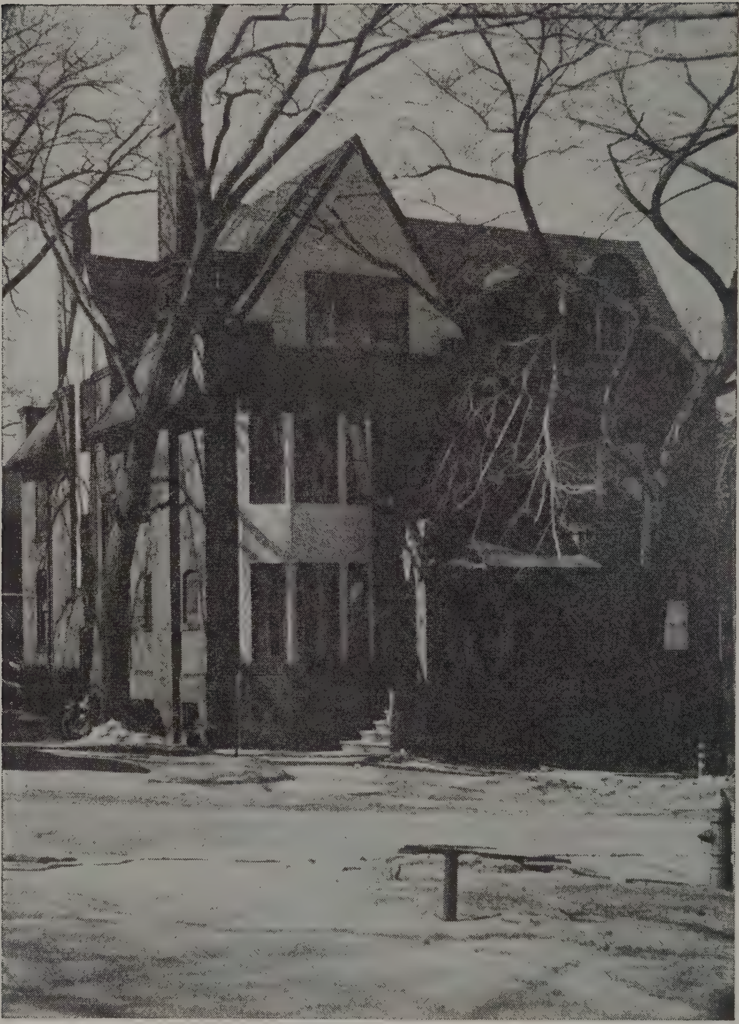
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

WISCONSIN CHAPTER



WISCONSIN

THE WISCONSIN CHAPTER

1902–

Alpha Delta Phi established its Wisconsin Chapter in 1902. It was the thirteenth national fraternity to install a chapter at the University of Wisconsin.

The first attempt to obtain a charter at Wisconsin was made in 1885. At that time a group of six men pledged to one of the then-existing national fraternities became dissatisfied with prevailing conditions and decided to petition Alpha Delta Phi. Upon hearing of the existence of this group, several other national fraternities saw the chance to use it as a nucleus for a Wisconsin Chapter, but the group was interested solely in Alpha Delta Phi. After three years of unsuccessful petitioning, the attempt was given up.

In 1897 seven men founded a local fraternity, Phi Rho Beta, with two definite aims: (1) to promote character, leadership, scholarship, and brotherly feeling in its members, and (2) to found a chapter of Alpha Delta Phi on the Wisconsin campus. At first this effort, too, seemed doomed. However, through the influence of Alpha Delts of the Wisconsin, Chicago, and Michigan faculties, the cause gained ground. Finally in May 1902, at the annual convention of Alpha Delta Phi the petition for a Wisconsin charter was granted.

In recent years the number of men in the chapter has averaged about forty-five. Earlier chapters were smaller, but the growth of the University made it inevitable that delegations should be larger, despite a conservative policy of limiting membership.

The original chapter home was a frame house located on Langdon Street. In 1916 the present chapter house at 640 N. Henry Street, in Madison, was purchased. It has rooming accommodations for twenty-three men. The house is located on the shores of Lake Mendota and includes a stone boat house. The memory of this beautiful setting is one which a Wisconsin Alpha Delta never forgets.

For a great many years the chapter has profited from the continued guidance of many loyal Madison brothers who are well known by the members of the active chapter for their deep and sincere interest in the Chapter's welfare. All brothers of Wisconsin Alpha Delta Phi are joined in an effort to maintain a high level of fraternity life and a worthy contribution to the University.

YALE UNIVERSITY

YALE CHAPTER

THE YALE CHAPTER

1836–1873, 1888–1935

The Yale Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was established by members of the Hamilton Chapter. Its charter members were, accordingly, themselves initiates, and its first recognition by the Fraternity in convention assembled antedates by nearly a year the time generally assigned to its foundation, its first meeting having been held before that of Columbia, although the latter received an earlier charter.

The Yale Chapter continued in active existence for thirty-seven years and took an important part in Fraternity government and the shaping of its policy. The Brunonian Chapter was established by a Yale delegation, and the conversion of the local society, Iota Pi Kappa, at Amherst in a Chapter of Alpha Delta Phi was likewise largely due to Yale influence and effort. The first song-book and, with two exceptions, all the catalogues, until 1860, were likewise issued from Yale, while at the second convention, held in New Haven, August 15, 1839, was delivered an address by Samuel Eells, which was the first of those public exercises that have now become a normal part of the annual celebration of most fraternities.

As a result of most unfortunate complications induced by the political and social conditions of Yale life, this Chapter suspended its activity in the spring of 1873, and voluntarily surrendered its charter at a convention held at Cornell in the same year.

In the spring of 1888, a small but earnest group, having proved the sincerity of their purposes and desires, sought and received a new charter. In the winter of 1893–94, committees from Psi Upsilon and Delta Kappa Epsilon, existing in Yale as junior societies, met one from Alpha Delta Phi to discuss a plan by which the Yale Chapter should also become a junior society, and the three should amicably coöperate in their choice of future candidates for election. In the winter of 1894–95 the conference was again renewed and the importance of determining the question according to the suggestion there made became so apparent that the Chapter entered into an agreement with the two societies named to adopt the proposed policy, provided the consent of the Fraternity could be obtained at its next convention. At the convention held with the Columbia Chapter in May, 1895, the proposition of the Yale Chapter was approved.

In 1935, after some years of deliberation as to the wisdom of such action, the Yale Chapter voluntarily withdrew from the Fraternity and surrendered its Charter to the Executive Council. The evolution of the intramural college system on the Yale campus, with the consequent segregation of the undergraduates into smaller groups, made the continued existence of junior societies like Alpha Delta Phi extremely difficult. It was with great regret that the remaining chapters of Alpha Delta Phi accepted the inevitable. The Yale Chapter will always be honored for its distinguished contributions to their Alma Mater, to the nation at large, and to Alpha Delta Phi.
